He is not here. He is risen

Today we are invited to contemplate the empty tomb and to hear the words of the angel: "Do not be afraid, for he has been raised." Those words should affect the ways we judge and deal with the events of our daily lives, especially the ways we relate to others. The empty tomb should challenge us. It should make us think. It should encourage us to trust and believe that God is in every situation and every person and that his light can shine in the least expected and most hidden corners of our lives.

He rose from the dead, from that place where nobody waits for anything, and now he waits for us to enable us to share in his saving work. With this strength, we Christians place our lives and our energy, our affections and our will, at the service of discovering, and above all creating, paths of dignity.

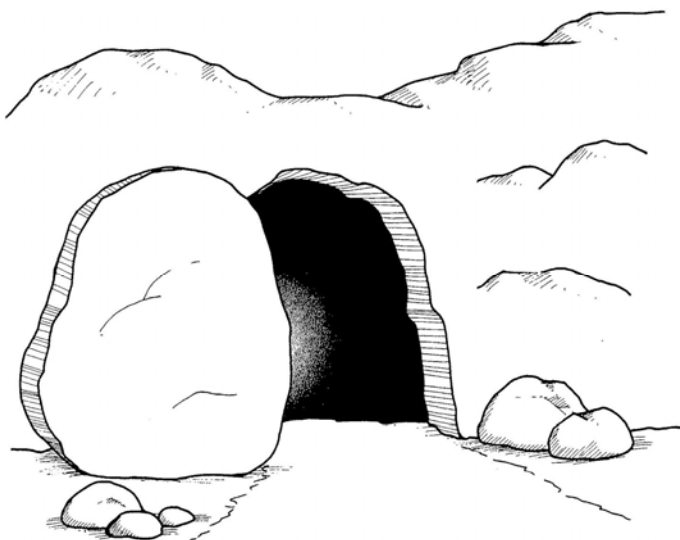

He is not here. He is risen! This is the message that sustains our hope and turns it into concrete gestures of charity. How greatly we need to let our faith be revived! How greatly we need our myopic horizons to be challenged and renewed by this message! Christ is risen, and he makes our hope rise so that we can face our present problems in the knowledge that we are not alone.

To celebrate Easter is to believe once more that God constantly breaks into our personal histories, challenging our fixed ways of thinking and acting that can paralyzing us. To celebrate Easter is to allow Jesus to triumph over the dark fear that so often assails us and tries to bury every kind of hope. The stone before the tomb shared in this, the women of the Gospel shared in this, and now the invitation is addressed once more to you and to me. An invitation to break out of our routines and to renew our lives, our decisions, our very existence. An invitation that must be directed to what we do each day. Do we want to share in this message of life or do we prefer to continue standing speechless before those daily events that challenge us?

He is not here. He has been raised! And he awaits you in Galilee. He invites you to go back to the time and place of your first faith and he says to you, "Do not be afraid, follow me."

~ Easter Homily of Pope Francis

Raise Your Paddle for our Youth!

Fundraiser during Fidelisfest
Sunday, April 28

The youth at St. Fidelis and throughout our tri-parishes serve and contribute so much! Our youth ministry is thriving and many opportunities await our youth to enrich their faith and grow in fellowship from gatherings of faith and fellowship on a local level to national events such as the March for Life in Washington D.C., the National Catholic Youth Conference in Indiana, and even our annual CYO Ski Trip held every December. Because of your continued support and generosity these opportunities can be offered at a fraction of the cost, allowing more youth to participate in these pilgrimages and trips.

On Sunday, April 28, during the auction at Fidelisfest, there will be a special auction specifically for our Youth Ministry called a "Paddle Raise".

What is a Paddle Raise? The auctioneer will invite guests to raise their paddle or bid card as the auctioneer calls out increments of money. This money goes directly to support our youth attending NCYC this coming November AND any additional funds will be used to support other Youth Ministry trips and pilgrimages!

Please stop by the Youth Ministry booth at Fidelisfest and visit with a few members of our CYO, look at pictures, and witness some of the most recent trips and activities within our Youth Ministry: both Jr. CYO and CYO.

If you are unable to join us at Fidelisfest or you would prefer to make an anonymous donation, you may stop by the Parish Office during business hours. Please ask for Jan Brungardt or Jeanette Brungardt.

Religious Education End of Year Mass & Holy Hour

PLENARY INDULGENCE GIVEN WHEN VISITING A BASILICA

The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence by visiting a minor basilica. An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord's Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion and pray for the intention of the pope.

 CHRISTIAN MOTHERS
 ALTAR SOCIETY
 Blessed are the mothers who taught us
 how to pray.
 They will share
 God's
