PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord’s Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

Temples of the Holy Spirit

Pentecost celebrates the coming of the Holy Spirit to the Church and to each believer, making us temples of that same spirit. The spirit of God within us is a belief of every religion. Some do not believe in the personal God Christians call Father and some do not believe that Jesus of Nazareth is God's Son. But every faith honors the spirit of God in the world and in each person.

But what that spirit is and how she acts divides the religions of the world. It has divided Christianity. In the eleventh century Christianity split into Roman Catholic and Greek Orthodox in a dispute over the Holy Spirit. They agreed on who God the Father was and who Jesus was, but disagreed on how the Holy Spirit relates to the Father and the Son. This remains the basic theological division between us.

In the sixteenth century a dispute over the Holy Spirit divided Western Christianity into Catholicism and Protestantism. Catholics believe that the spirit speaks through Scripture, tradition, and the teaching authority of the church. Protestants hold that the spirit speaks only through Scripture. Protestantism has subdivided many times regarding how the spirit speaks through Scripture: in each believer; in the church; or various unions of these.

Today a dispute over the spirit of God and the human spirit divides modern people. Secular humanism holds that the spirituality within us comes solely from our humanity. Christianity insists that our spiritual life comes from a divine spirit, a gift beyond human potential. We cannot save ourselves.

Christians believe that at the creation of the world God shared with us his spirit of life. Genesis says that at creation "the spirit hovered over the waters," and that God "breathed the spirit of life into Adam."

That was the first creation.

A new creation followed when Mary conceived Christ by the power of Holy Spirit. When Christ died he gave up his spirit, but God returned that spirit to him, raising him up at the Resurrection. Saint Paul wrote, "God constituted Jesus as Son of God in power through the Holy Spirit by his resurrection from the dead."

On Pentecost the Apostles were given the Holy Spirit in a unique manner which gave birth to the church. The same spirit is given to the baptized who become temples of the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of God dwelling among and within us. "Come Holy Spirit, and kindle in our hearts the fire of your love.."

UPDATE FROM JAN BRUNGARDT

LUNCH PROGRAM

St. Fidelis Parish offers a lunch program for any child in the 432 school district. Lunch is served Monday-Friday at 11:00 a.m. at the Parish Activity Center. There is no fee and registration. Just show up and share lunch with your friends. If anyone has visiting grandchildren, friends, etc. they are also invited to attend. The meal is prepared by Fr. John and served by him and volunteers.

Donations of cookies, brownies, Rice Krispy treats, or other desserts are welcome.

I would like to thank everyone who donated towards the lunch program to help defray the cost. You are most appreciated. I would also like to thank all those who have come forward and volunteered to help serve the meal. You are also appreciated.

THRIFT SHOP

The St. Fidelis Thrift Shop continues to do very well. I hear compliments from people all the time about how great the shop looks. If you have not been to the Thrift Shop, you should take time to check it out. Again, we appreciate all the donations but keep in mind we cannot accept TV's, mattresses, non working appliances, or electronics.

All of the people at the Thrift Shop are volunteers. They are doing a great job. They show up on their scheduled days or find a replacement. They keep the Thrift Shop going. If you happen to know of anyone working there, please give them a big thank you. The money used at the thrift shop helps support the food pantry and gas vouchers. This money used to come from the general parish funds but with the Thrift Shop that is no longer necessary.

FOOD PANTRY

The St. Fidelis Food Pantry has been really busy these past couple of months. A huge thank you to all who donate money or food to help keep it going along with the funds of the Thrift Shop. If you know of anyone who could benefit from a little extra food each month, please tell them to call Jan at the parish office. 735-2777.

FIDELISFEST

The Fidelisfest was again a success. Thanks to all the donors, buyers, bidders, ticket buyers, cooks, clean up helpers, and all other volunteers, and those who just came to have a good time. We appreciate all of you. If you would like to see the total expenses, stop in the office and visit with Fr. John.

family MATTERS

THE MONTH OF JUNE

hello
summer

School is out and summer break has begun. Is your summer busier than the school year? Whatever your story, it's crucial that a break from school does not turn into a break from God. As your schedule changes from homework, and extra-curricular activities to family vacations, baseball, and family bbq's, it is important that your family stay focused on the one thing that never changes—your Heavenly Father.

What will you do as a family to keep Jesus a part of your summer routine?

Read together as a family: the bible (a paragraph a night), a novel, your favorite prayer book. Reading together as family exercises our God-given imaginations, it gives families a chance to spend quality time together, it helps to grow attention spans (reading isn't always easy, and reading aloud takes a high level of concentration). Reading a book together is a journey of shared experiences. Sharing these experiences becomes memories to our family. Hopefully, our kids will carry memories like these into their own families some day.

Go to church as a family. A child learns mostly by doing. They also learn by watching what the parents do. Be careful, your children are paying attention to you. When you attend church as a family you are sending a very concrete and strong message to your child about who they are and who their family is. They know that they go to church, and that Mom and Dad do too. Many families can find attending Mass challenging. Attending Mass as a family may mean sacrifices, but it is essential for the life of our souls. Our faithful Mass attendance sets a good example of what we parents and their extended family values. Going to Mass as a family and celebrating the great things that God has done for us through Jesus and the Saints at Mass can help strengthen our bond and install morals and values in our children's lives, creating togetherness and traditions. When you establish your own family routine on Sunday, you are creating your own family traditions.

5 Simple Ways to Pray Together as a Family

1. Pray at meal time: Make the sign of the Cross and have the kids simply say, "Thank you, Jesus." Or, you may say the "Bless us O Lord..." prayer, or whatever other words of thanks to God may be on your heart! These are great reminders for the whole family, about where all good things ultimately come from.
2. Bless each other: Parents can offer a blessing by tracing the sign of the cross on their children's foreheads, and children can return the favor. This simple practice welcomes God into your relationships and reminds all that "our" family belongs to God.
3. Wonder at Creation: Help your children to recognize and adore the glory of God in all things—in the ocean, the night sky, the forest, etc. The awe experienced through His creation can point the family toward God and help to appreciate His power, goodness, and love.
4. Say sorry: When you or your children find yourselves in a situation that requires an apology as remedy, be sure to apologize to God, as well. This will help the family remember its duty to live well in relation to both God and neighbor.
5. Pray through joys and sorrows: Families can pray together in thanksgiving for a good day and for God's help in difficult times. Praying through both good and bad reminds the family of God's presence and that he answers all prayers as He sees fit. Prayer need not be difficult. A family can pray simply by living among one another. In addition to attending Sunday Mass, read scripture together, visit the adoration chapel, pray the Rosary.

CORRECTION

The Peter's Pence collection is scheduled for the weekend of June 29-30—not June 1-2 as noted in last week's bulletin. If you did contribute already, be assured that your contribution will go to the Peter's Pence collection.
