Diocesan Day of Mercy TODAY Confessions 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. at The Basilica of St. Fidelis

“Stand up and go; your faith has saved you.”

(from the Holy Gospel according to Luke 17:11-19)

Monday is Columbus Day, a national holiday. The adventure of Christopher Columbus was not only about the discovery of a new land, but also the commission of Christ to preach the gospel to all nations. The Spanish Crown and Christopher Columbus surely had mixed motives, not all of them noble, but one of their main objectives was to bring Christianity to a new land. There are historical documents which verify that.

Every school child knows that the three ships of 1492 were the Nina, the Pinta, and Sancta Maria. The full name of the flagship was La Santa María de la Inmaculada Concepción, The Blessed Mary of the Immaculate Conception. When Columbus landed in the new world, somewhere in the Bahamas, he named the first island on which he set foot, San Salvador, The Holy Savior. Another island he named Santa Maria de la Concepcion, after the Immaculate Conception of the Virgin Mary, the mother of Christ. On later trips he called the archipelago near Cuba Our Lady's Sea. A strikingly circular island he named Santa Maria Rotunda.

However misguided some of his later efforts were in dealing with the native people, the furthering of the gospel was an integral part of the adventure of Columbus. Modern historians tend to judge the actions of Columbus and the Spanish Crown rather harshly and not without some justification. Yet the history of our own nation, and most nations, betray similar faults. "Let he who is without sin cast the first stone."

An old adage, "Don't throw out the baby with the dirty bath water," may help to place the adventure of Columbus in proper perspective. It has been said that the history of Christianity is like a grand Cathedral, but the only things that many people see are the pigeon droppings on the exterior. If we discarded all the significant people of history for faults common to us all, we would not have many history books to study.

This land that Columbus discovered was soon afflicted with its own blemishes, including a religious intolerance which is difficult for us to comprehend today. That atmosphere was fueled in the 19th century by organizations such as the Klu Klux Klan, the Nativist movement, and the Know-Nothing Party. In 1881 a young parish priest in New Haven, Connecticut, Fr. Michael McGivney, organized a group of men to provide financial and moral support for immigrants subjected to religious discrimination, especially widows and orphans. He named this fraternal benevolent society The Knights of Columbus to recall that the roots of our nation were religious and that people of every faith were equal citizens in the land discovered by a man of faith.

As attitudes became more tolerant Fr. McGivney's group adapted to the evolving social needs of immigrants and their descendants. Today, the Knights of Columbus, whose charitable works are well known, are a thriving fraternal organization nearly two million strong, including our own council 1867 with its own proud history of service here in Victoria. Along with many other such benevolent groups they enrich the social fabric of our nation. The adventurous captain of that flagship, La Santa María de la Inmaculada Concepción, would be proud that his missionary spirit is alive in the Knights of Columbus.

"When it's socially easy to be a Catholic, it's more difficult to be a good one; and when it's difficult to be a good Catholic, it's actually easier to be one." ~ Pope Paul VI

OCTOBER—ALERT

The United States is one of the destination countries for human trafficking. Victims originate from nations such as Russia, Ukraine, Malaysia, Philippines, Thailand, Costa Rica, Puerto Rico, Czech Republic, Mexico, and India. Victims are brought here to work in fields, sweatshops, homes, restaurants, motels, hotels, and brothels. Ending this slavery is everyone's work. Learn more by going to sistersagainstrafficking.org, a website of U.S. Catholic Sisters Against Human Trafficking. Share information with your family and friends.

Domestic Violence Awareness Month

KNOW THE FACTS. Domestic abuse and violence refers to a pattern of violent and coercive behavior exercised by one adult in an intimate relationship over another. It is not a private family matter.

Domestic violence, also known as intimate partner violence (IPV), is defined by the Centers for Disease Control as a serious, preventable public health problem that affects millions of Americans. It refers to the physical, sexual, or psychological harm by a current or former partner or spouse and does include teen dating relationships.

A statistic from the Bureau of Justice indicates that from 1994 to 2010 about 4 in 5 victims of intimate partner violence were female. Domestic violence affects the whole family, including any children. Faith communities are called to offer hope, help, and healing to all harmed by domestic abuse and violence.

PLENARY INDULGENCE GIVEN WHEN VISITING A BASILICA

The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence by visiting a minor basilica. An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord's Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion and pray for the intention of the pope. ~taken from The Register, the Salina Diocese newspaper
