HAPPY NEW YEAR

The Parish Office will be closed tomorrow—Monday, January 2, in observance of the New Year's holiday.

Today, January 1, the church celebrates the feast of Mary the Mother of God. It is most fitting that on New Year's Day, a day of new beginnings, the dawn of a new year, we should celebrate Mary, with the title of her greatest honor in giving birth to Christ: "The Mother of God." The Scriptural foundation for this title comes from the greeting Mary received when she visited her cousin Elizabeth: "And how does this happen to me that the mother of my Lord should come to me?" (Luke 1: 43).

The official dogma of Mary as "the Mother of God" did not come until the fifth century, when the Council of Ephesus met in 431 to resolve a controversy that arose when a Bishop named Nestorius claimed that Mary could be called "Mother of Christ" but not "Mother of God." He insisted the human and the divine in Jesus were absolutely distinct so that there was a human Christ and a divine Christ. The Council rejected this teaching of Nestorius and affirmed that Jesus was one divine person with a divine nature and a human nature. Since Mary was the mother of the divine person she should be properly honored as Mary the Mother of God.

This title, Mother of God, can easily be misunderstood, as some non-Catholic Christians have objected. It does not mean that Mary gave birth to God or to divinity. It means that she was the mother of Jesus of Nazareth who was a divine person, truly the Son of God. The expression for this truth of faith is expressed well by the Eastern Catholic Church which uses the Greek term, theotokos, literally "bearer of God." Mary is the one who bore a son who was the divine Son of God.

There is an important theological principal here that goes beyond pious devotion to the Virgin Mary. The concept and the title for Mary as Mother of God, the theotokos, did not come from theologians trying to honor Mary. It came from the great Christological councils of the church in the fourth and fifth centuries that were trying to understand who Christ was and how his human and divine nature were united in the Son of God. It was in trying to understand who Christ was that the church came to understand who Mary was. The work of these councils has given us an enduring theological principle: If you get something wrong about Mary, you get something wrong about Christ. Only when you understand Mary correctly can you understand Christ properly.

In his encyclical on authentic devotion to Mary, Marialis Cultus (1974) Pope Paul VI wrote: "This celebration, assigned to the first of January in conformity with the ancient liturgy of the city of Rome, is meant to commemorate the part played by Mary in the mystery of our salvation. It is meant also to exalt the singular dignity which this mystery brings to the holy Mother through whom we were found worthy to receive the Author of life. It is likewise a fitting occasion for renewed adoration of the newborn Prince of Peace, for listening once more to the glad tidings of the angels, and for imploring from God, through the Queen of Peace, the supreme gift of peace. For this reason we have instituted the World Day of Peace, an observance that is gaining increasing support and is already bringing forth fruits of peace in the hearts of many."

On this day which inaugurates a new year in our journey of faith, when we are grateful for the life of Christ which we have received through Mary, when we hope this new year will bring new life to our spirit, it is most fitting that the church honors Mary, the theotokos, as the Mother of God.

... and mirth

May all your troubles last as long as your New Year's resolutions.
