PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord's Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

EXALTATION OF THE HOLY CROSS THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 14

“For where two or three are gathered together in my name,
there am I in the midst of them.”

Matthew 18:15-20

Where Two or Three Gather

Our modern digital age has many wonderful conveniences. It also has serious concerns. One such concern is screen time. The average person today looks at a screen ten times as much as at another human face. This can produce a sense of social isolation with a lessening of concern for the welfare of others.

In today's gospel Christ offered us an antidote for this unnatural isolation, "Where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in their midst." Christianity is a community faith. St. Augustine wrote, "One Christian is no Christian."

At a parish Mass there is a spiritual, a psychological, and a social group dynamic. By assembling in his name, we make the Lord present among us. "Where two or three are gathered in my name there am I in their midst." That is one reason why we cannot receive any of the sacraments on television, over the telephone, or on-line.

When the faithful assemble for the celebration of the Eucharist, the Lord is present in three ways: in Eucharist, in Scripture, and in the assembly. He is bodily present in the Eucharist, and we receive the Body and Blood of Christ in Holy Communion. This bodily presence of Christ is the one essential aspect of the Eucharist.

The Lord is also present in the proclamation of the Scriptures. Reading the word of God makes The Word of God present to the assembly. The Lord is present in the proclamation of his Word to his people.

The third presence of the Lord is effected by the gathering of the faithful. "Where two or three gathered in my name, there am I in their midst." The Lord is made present by each member of the congregation as they assemble in His name. Each person helps to bring the Lord into our gathering.

When we absent ourselves from the Eucharistic assembly, as when we miss a family celebration — a wedding, a funeral, a reunion, — we not only deprive ourselves of an enriching experience, but we lessen that experience for others. At a Eucharistic assembly, the presence of each one makes Christ present to all, and the absence of any one lessens the presence of Christ for others.

We gather at the Eucharistic assembly to make Christ present not only to ourselves but to all in the community who share and support our faith. Catholicism is both personal and communal. Our greatest experience of this is when we assemble for the Eucharist. "Where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in their midst."
