PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord's Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

The Other Wise Men

The gospel does not tell us how many wise men came to adore the Christ Child. We assume three Magi from three gifts. Ancient traditions suggested four for the four evangelists or twelve for the twelve apostles. Henry van Dyke wrote an inspiring novel, "The Story of the Other Wise Man." A DVD version is available and is wholesome entertainment in this holiday season.

His novel is about a fictitious wise man, Artaban, who had planned to travel with Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar. He bought three jewels as gifts for the infant king: a sapphire, a ruby, and a pearl. But on the day of departure he stopped to help an injured child and missed the caravan. So he sold the sapphire to outfit a second expedition. When he finally arrived at Bethlehem, the Holy Family had fled to Egypt. But he did rescue one of the Holy Innocents by bribing a soldier with the ruby.

With only the pearl remaining, he set out again to find the new King. When he was close to meeting the Messiah, a cry for help from the unfortunate always delayed him. Thirty years later in Jerusalem he heard that a man was condemned to death who claimed to be the Messiah King. Artaban thought this might be the king he was seeking, so he decided to ransom him with his pearl. But on his way to the praetorium he saw a slave auction where a girl was being sold into bondage. He bought the young woman with the pearl and set her free.

He had now given away his last tribute to the new King, and he had not found him. Suddenly the skies darkened over Calvary, there was an earthquake, and Artaban was crushed by falling rock. As he lay dying the clouds parted and a voice said, "Whatever you have done to the least of my children, you have done to me." Artaban died knowing that he had found the King many times.

Van Dyke's story is a parable. Artaban is every Christian. We are all on a journey in search of the Messiah King. We have been entrusted with many gifts to offer him. Like Artaban we will not meet the infant King in person. But on our journey we will meet Him in many others and our gifts to them will be our gifts to Him. "Whatever you have done to the least of my children, you have done to me." Our spiritual journey through life can be inspired by that of The Other Wise Man.

..... and mirth

Congress canceled their Christmas pageant for lack of three wise men.

Tithing Envelopes

2022 tithing envelopes are available at the entrances of all three churches. If you do not have a box of envelopes and would like one please let Jan know at the parish office.

REMEMBER beginning January 1, 2022, use your new box of envelopes. Throw the old box away or recycle it.

Donations are recorded according to the number on the envelope. Numbers change each year for several reasons: new parishioners, someone passed away, or some have decided to not use envelopes. Every check in the loose collection is recorded by name but it is much easier to keep track of your donations if you use your envelopes.

If you have any questions, contact Jan at the parish office. Thank you!

New Parish Directory

The St. Fidelis Parish Council has decided it is time to do a new parish directory. In the past, we have used a company that does this on a regular basis. Other options have been discussed by the Council such as having local photographers take pictures of people as they are going into church rather than make appointments in the evenings.

Nothing has been decided for sure. This project will probably be completed in the spring.

This directory will be for all three parishes so anyone can help or be in charge.

If anyone is interested in being in charge of this directory or if you are willing to help, please contact Jan at the Parish Office.

From the Diocesan Safe Environment Office

As the world continues to deal with the stresses of the pandemic, it is important for adults (especially parents) to manage their own stress effectively and allow themselves to continue functioning when faced with challenges, adversities, and trauma. Parents being the most important people in a child’s world, let us be sure our own homes are safe havens for our children.

Easy ways to prevent abuse from happening in our homes:

- Learn what is age appropriate. Having realistic expectations of what children can handle will help avoid frustration and anger at normal childhood behavior.
- Develop new parenting skills. Learn appropriate discipline techniques and how to set clear boundaries for your children. Parenting classes, books, and seminars offer this information.
- Take care of yourself. The worst tends to come out of us, parents or not, when we are overwhelmed, stressed or anxious. Connecting with other people, getting enough sleep, eating well and regular exercise are excellent ways to take care of yourself.
- Get help when needed. If you were abused or neglected as a child or find yourself feeling overwhelmed and would like to talk to someone, call our Victim Assistance Coordinator 866-752-8855 #1067

Facts about child abuse and neglect:

- There is more than one type of child abuse. Child abuse can be physical, sexual, emotional, or neglect. Signs of abuse may not always be obvious.
- Abuse and neglect don’t just happen in poor families or “bad” neighborhoods. Child abuse crosses all racial, economic, and cultural lines.
- Most abusers are family members or others close to the family.
- Many abusive parents are victims of abuse themselves and don’t know any other way to parent. Others may be struggling with mental health issues or substance abuse problems.

The church is the Body of Christ. All members of the Church are linked to one another. We ALL have a responsibility to ensure the safety of children in our parishes, schools, families, and local communities.

The Diocese of Salina has taken great strides in fulfilling our promise to protect children, educate our communities, and bring healing to those who have suffered abuse.

Are there people who sit next to you at Mass each week who do not currently minister to minors, but could benefit from being educated on how to protect children? Please encourage them to contact the Safe Environment Office at 785-827-8746.

The more people who are educated on child sexual abuse, the safer our children will be!

Catholic Charities Can Assist Those Impacted by Recent Windstorms

On December 15, 2021, Northwest Kansas experienced devastating winds and wildfires. Many throughout our 31-county service area were impacted and suffered significant loss.

Our hearts and prayers are with all who have experienced loss, especially so close to Christmas.

Moments like these are especially disruptive for families living "on the edge," as unexpected repairs and deductibles can deplete any savings they may have and drive them further into poverty.

Catholic Charities of Northern Kansas is here to help on the journey to recovery.

Those needing assistance can call the Catholic Charities office nearest them or visit:

<https://ccnks.org/decemberdisaster>.

If you wish to help those impacted by these events, the best way to help is by donating to the Catholic Charities Local Disaster Relief Fund. Go to:

www.ccnks.org/disasterfund.
