PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord’s Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

Two Coats

In today's gospel when the people asked John the Baptist what they should do to enter the kingdom of God, he replied, "Whoever has two cloaks should share with the person who has none." St. Philip Neri, who worked with the homeless youth of Rome, said it more poignantly, "The second coat in your closet does not belong to you. It belongs to the child who has none."

That would sting the conscience of a Scrooge. Yet it can be misconstrued as a guilt trip. It does not mean that it is wrong to have two coats. It means that when others are in need, we are obliged to share our abundance with them. And in today's world the vast majority of us live with an abundance of stuffed closets, attics, garages and basements. Not to mention wallets, credit cards, and pantries.

Most of the time we are oblivious to this. But not during this season. As Christmas approaches we become aware of those in need and our obligation to share with them. The meaning of the birth of Christ, too often drowned out by the commercial hype, is still alive and still stirs our conscience. The endurance of the message of the Christ Child, the fulfilment of the promised Messiah, overcomes even the secular allure of modern materialism. Somehow, that little Baby touches every heart.

There is another dimension to this obligation to care for those in need. We must attend to our own needs. Not in material things but in the realm of our inner spiritual life. The coming birth of Christ should awaken our conscience not only to share with the others but to attend to our own spiritual needs. We may be materially comfortable, but spiritually restless.

Scripture speaks of "the mantle of justice" (Bar 5:2) and "the robe of salvation." (Is 61:10) There is a "cloak of grace" that we all need to give to the spiritual child within us.

Our Catholic faith provides many opportunities to attend to our inner needs in this season: the liturgical celebrations of Advent, the sacramental opportunities for confession and Communion. These sacramental graces of God can give you the Christmas gift of peace of the soul.

"The second coat in your closet does not belong to you. It belongs to the child who has none." Share with those in need during this season but also attend to your own inner needs. The spiritual child within you may be in need of the inner warmth of the graces offered to you by the sacraments of the church.

... and mirth

Never trust atoms; they make up everything.

Parishioner Info Update

Out of 497 parishioners listed in our database, we have received 54 updated information forms back.

Thank you to all who have already returned their updated information.

We do need your name, address, phone numbers, and email. Even if you think we have the correct information, please fill out the form that was in the November 14 bulletin and return it to the office. You can put it in the collection basket during weekend Masses or bring it to the Parish Office or mail it to: Basilica of St. Fidelis, 601 10th Street, Victoria, Kansas 67671.

YOU CAN REQUEST A FORM AT THE PARISH OFFICE OR FIND THEM AT THE ENTRANCES TO THE CHURCH.

The form can also be printed from the home page of our website:
StFidelisChurch.com.

Tithing Envelopes

2022 tithing envelopes are available at the entrances of all three churches. If you do not have a box of envelopes and would like one please let Jan know at the parish office.

REMEMBER beginning January 1, 2022 use your new box of envelopes. Throw the old box away or recycle it.

Donations are recorded according to the number on the envelope. Numbers change each year for several reasons: new parishioners, someone passed away, or some have decided to not use envelopes. Every check in the loose collection is recorded by name but it is much easier to keep track of your donations if you use your envelopes.

If you have any questions, contact Jan at the parish office. Thank you!

Anyone willing to serve as a Lector or an Extraordinary Eucharistic Minister at the Basilica of St. Fidelis, please contact Diane Gross at 785-735-4804.

More volunteers are needed now that we are having more Communion Stations at weekend Masses.

LOST & FOUND

A small doll blanket was found in a pew of the Basilica of St. Fidelis after the Thanksgiving Day Mass on Thursday, November 25. To claim, please call the Parish Office at 785-735-2777.

Christmas Basket Drive

It is that time of year again to get names for our Christmas baskets. The Tri-Parish Christmas Basket Drive will be the same as last year.

If you wish to donate to the Christmas Basket Drive this year, we are asking for cash donations only. That will prevent us from handling the food so many times.

There is a team of volunteers that will purchase and pack what is necessary for the baskets.

Those receiving the baskets will be asked to pick them up at the Parish Office on Wednesday, December 22. We will schedule times in 15-minute increments so as to keep social distancing and protect confidentiality.

You may drop your monetary donations in the collection baskets and mark them for Christmas boxes or bring it to the parish office.

If you or anyone you know is in need of a food basket for Christmas, please let Jan at the Parish Office know. Thank You!!!

Homebound Services

St. Fidelis offers homebound Eucharistic ministry to all three parishes every Wednesday morning and every Sunday after the 10:00 a.m. Mass. If you would like to receive communion in your home, contact Jan at the Parish Office. Fr. Jim will also come to your home and offer the anointing of the sick or confessions. Contact Jan at the Parish Office.

New Parish Directory

The St. Fidelis Parish Council has decided it is time to do a new parish directory. In the past, we have used a company that does this on a regular basis. Other options have been discussed by the Council such as having local photographers take pictures of people as they are going into church rather than make appointments in the evenings.

Nothing has been decided for sure. This project will probably be completed in the spring.

This directory will be for all three parishes so anyone can help or be in charge.

If anyone is interested in being in charge of this directory or if you are willing to help, please contact Jan at the Parish Office.

Restoration Fund Update

As of November 23, we have received $335,673.50 ($84,249.06 from non-parishioners) towards the restoration fund for the Basilica of St. Fidelis. Thank you for your generosity.

Anointing of the Sick

The sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will be administered after Masses according to the following schedule:

Saint Ann—Saturday, December 11

Saint Boniface — Sunday, December 12

Saint Fidelis — Sunday, December 12

There will be NOT be an anointing at Saint Fidelis on Saturday, December 11.

“Those of the faithful whose health is seriously impaired by sickness or old age receive this sacrament. ...A sick person may be anointed before surgery whenever a serious illness is the reason for the surgery. ...Elderly people may be anointed if they have become notably weakened even though no serious illness is present.”

[Pastoral Care of the Sick, nn. 8, 10-11]

Tour Guides Needed

The Basilica of St. Fidelis gets many visitors throughout the year.

Some large groups request guided tours.

If you like to meet people and love our church, maybe you could volunteer to be a guide.

The history book published for our 2011 Centennial has lots of information you could provide for the visitors.

And personal experiences can be thrown in as well.

If you are interested in helping with these tours—which can be anywhere from 15 minutes to an hour—and are usually during weekday mornings and afternoons, please contact the Parish Office at 785-735-2777.

Three Village Travel tour buses out of Wichita, Kansas, brought a group of about 150 tourists to the Basilica of St. Fidelis on Tuesday, December 7, around 3:00 p.m. Jan Piesker, a volunteer tour guide for the parish, provided them with some information about the church. More volunteer guides are needed—call the Parish Office to volunteer.

The Basilica Is Chosen as 'Best of the Best'

Janet Kuhn, with the Hays Convention and Visitors Bureau informed the Parish Office that the Basilica of St. Fidelis was recently chosen as one of Destinations magazine's Best of the Best in the culture category. This is the first time a destination in Kansas has been named Best of the Best.

Destinations magazine bills itself as the official publication of the American Bus Association.

There are many visitors to the Basilica throughout the year with many arriving in buses. As an example, on Tuesday, December 7, a tour group of about 150 originating from Wichita stopped for a visit.

A number of these visitors are generous donators to the upkeep of the Basilica.

The link below will open the November/December 2021 issue of the magazine. The church is listed on Page 20.

<https://ygsgroup.com/pubs/aba/destinations/2021/NovemberDecember/>.

24-Hour Adoration

All are invited to attend at any time.
