PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord's Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

The NEW Padre Pio Relic

Our new Saint Padre Pio relic is both First Class and Second Class. It is a tiny bit of the habit (Second Class) worn by Padre Pio when he was first buried. In the process of canonization, the grave is opened and the body is examined. Padre Pio was clothed with a new habit (hooded brown robe) at that time and the other habit was divided up into tiny pieces. The First Class relic is the trace of flesh that is attached to the habit cloth.

The reliquary (holder of the relic) we have now was a small monstrance (holder of the Eucharist) that was in disrepair. This was given to Capuchin Brother Jude Quinto, OFM Cap., he repaired it, and it now contains our relic.

Capuchin Franciscan Saint Padre Pio born May 25, 1887, in Pietrelcina in southern Italy. Baptized Francesco, he was very devout even as a child, and at an early age felt drawn to the priesthood. Padre Pio said his "Childhood was as unremarkable as 'unsalted macaroni.'" He joined the Capuchins at age 15 or 16. He had feeble health, but a strong will. On September 20, 1918, the five bleeding wounds of Christ (stigmata) appeared on his feet, hands, and side. He is the first priest to receive the stigmata in the history of the Church. Saint Francis of Assisi received a different version of the stigmata, but he was a deacon. Padre Pio experienced frequent visions, ecstasies, trances, demonic assaults. Yet he said: "I am a poor friar who prays."

—Long hours of prayer; continual austerity; physical and spiritual sufferings (pain/bleeding, exams by doctors/Church, embarrassing curiosity seekers); and union with God; love for Eucharist; love for Blessed Virgin Mary.

Died Sept 23, 1968, age 81. Canonized June 16, 2002, because of his CHARITY.

Loved the sick/penitents. "Pray, hope, and don't worry."

Great saint. Currently honored by Pope Francis and whole church with relics now at the Vatican, along with St. Leopold of Mandic—also a Capuchin.

A LITTLE CHUCKLE

Just Don't Make It a Habit

A couple of nuns were shopping at a 7-11. As they passed the beer cooler, the one said, "Wouldn't a nice, cold beer or two taste wonderful on a hot summer evening?"

The second nun responded, "Indeed it would, Sister, but I wouldn't feel comfortable buying beer. It surely would cause a scene at the checkout."

"Leave it to me," said the first nun, picking up a six-pack and heading for the front counter.

Of course, the cashier had a surprised look on his face when he saw two nuns approaching with a six-pack.

Sister launched right into an explanation: "We use beer for washing our hair," she explained. "Back at the convent we call it 'Catholic Shampoo.'"

Without batting an eye, the cashier reached under the counter, pulled out a package of pretzel sticks, and put them in the bag with the beer. Looking Sister straight in the eye, he smiled and said, "The curlers are on the house."
