PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord’s Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

Teach Us to Pray

"Lord, teach us to pray," the disciple requested in today's gospel. The response of Christ was not a lecture on theology, but a simple prayer, the Lord's Prayer, the Our Father.

The wording of the Lord's Prayer in today's reading is from the gospel of Luke. Our traditional form is from Matthew's gospel, which is slightly different. Luke's version has five

We begin the prayer by acknowledging the kingdom of God, and only then do we address our own concerns.

The first three petitions concern God: hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done. The following four petitions concern our needs: give us our daily bread; forgive us our trespasses; lead us not into temptation; and deliver us from evil. Pope Francis has suggested changing,

"Lead us not into temptation," to "Do not let us fall into temptation." This may appear in future liturgical texts.

The Lord's Prayer corresponds to the Ten Commandments: the first three commandments pertain to God's honor and the final seven to our conduct. This prayer also reflects the two great commandments: love of God and love of neighbor. The Lord's Prayer reminds us that the sincerity of our relationship with God is measured by our concern for others.

The Lord's Prayer is about a love of God which inspires a love of others. This is evident in the personal pronouns: never I, me, or mine; but always we, us, and ours. Christianity is a community faith. It is not "Jesus and me," but "Jesus and us." St. Augustine wrote, "One Christian is no Christian." St. Bernard said, "Any prayer that does not echo the Our Father is not an authentic prayer."

... and mirth

A synonym is a word we use when we can't spell the word we want.

petitions, while Matthew has seven. Missing from Luke are, "Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven," and "Lead us not into temptation." Luke's final petition, "Subject us not to the trial," stresses the ultimate test of faith, not the lure of indulgent weakness. The conclusion, "For Thine is the Kingdom . . ." is not in either gospel but is a liturgical response, as at Mass.

The opening words—Our Father—were revolutionary. In the Old Testament the relationship of the people with God was of such a reverential distance that they never even pronounce the name of God. The coming of Christ brought us a new relationship with divinity: Christ is our brother and God is our Father.

Calling God, Our Father, acknowledges a mutual relationship. We place ourselves under the care of God, but we also assume the responsibility to act as children of God.

*7:00 P.M. Thursday, July 28

Lectors

This training is for all new and current Eucharistic Ministers and Lectors for the Tri-Parishes

If you are not a current minister but are interested in either or both of these ministries and are fully initiated into the Sacramental life of the Church (having received the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Eucharist), please contact the Parish office at 785-735-2777 for more information or to volunteer.

Those who volunteered for these ministries on their Parishioner Information Forms that were mailed out over the past few months are asked to attend the training on July 28.

LAST WEEK FOR THE Summer Lunch Program

St. Fidelis Church is sponsoring the summer lunch program at the Parish Activity Center, 601 10th Street. We serve lunches in the east room of the PAC Center from 11:00-11:30 a.m. Monday thru Friday.

Anyone in the Victoria area (children or adults) is invited and encouraged to attend. There is no pre-registration or cost.

LUNCH PROGRAM MENU

Monday, July 25 — Pizza Pockets

Tuesday, July 26 — Spaghetti

Wednesday, July 27 — Biscuits and Gravy

Thursday, July 28 — Potluck Special

Friday, July 29 — Hamburgers & Hotdogs

The main dishes are accompanied by a vegetable, fruit or other dessert, and a drink.

NOTE: The menu could change depending on supplies.

HOLY HOUR FOR VALUE THEM BOTH

Bishop Vincke has asked that every parishioner in the Diocese of Salina spend some time in their local parish on August 1 and/or August 2 praying for a "YES" decision on the Value Them Both Amendment on the ballot on Tuesday, August 2, 2022.

A Holy Hour of prayer is scheduled to follow Mass on Monday, August 1st, at the Basilica of Saint Fidelis.

Mass will begin as usual at 7:00 p.m. followed by an hour of prayer with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and a Rosary for the Value Them Both intention.

A confessor will be available for those who wish to go to confession during that time.

The service will end with Benediction.

All parishioners are invited and encouraged to attend.

Have Extra Meat Containers with Lids? Religious Ed Program Could use Some

The Religious Ed office is needing disposable luncheon meat containers with lids, 9- or 16-ounce. They work great for crayons and markers in the Religious Ed classrooms. If you have a few extra containers and would like to donate them, please drop them off at the Parish Activity Center in a bag marked "for Jeanette."

A LITTLE CHUCKLE

Colonoscopies Can Be Funny

Colonoscopies are no joke, but comments made during exams can be quite humorous. A physician claimed that the following are actual comments made by his patients (predominately male) while he was performing their colonoscopies:

1. "Take it easy, Doc. You're boldly going where no man has gone before!"
2. "Find Amelia Earhart yet?"
3. "Can you hear me NOW?"
4. "Are we there yet? Are we there yet? Are we there yet?"
5. "You know, in Arkansas, we're now legally married."
6. "Any sign of the trapped miners, Chief?"
7. "You put your left hand in, you take your left hand out...."
8. "Hey! Now I know how a Muppet feels!"
9. "Hey Doc, let me know if you find my dignity."
10. "Could you write a note for my wife saying that my head is not up there?"

LOST & FOUND

A plaque with a picture of St. Fidelis Church and Holy Cards were found in the bridal room of St. Fidelis on Wednesday, July 20.

A small toy dinosaur was found in the parking lot of St. Fidelis on Monday, July 18.

A baby's sock was found in the middle south side of St. Fidelis Church over the July 9-10 weekend.

A pair of glasses (reading glasses?) were found in the back of St. Fidelis the morning of July 4.

A key on a key ring was found in front of the Parish Office around Wednesday, June 29.

A stuffed bunny rabbit was found in the back pews of St. Fidelis around June 7.

To claim, please call the Parish Office at 785-735-2777.

Workers for Herzogfest Booth & Kitchen

Signup sheets will be on a table in the back of St. Fidelis for anyone willing to help with the St. Fidelis Herzogfest booth or in the kitchen on Friday, August 12, or on Saturday, August 13.

Please be generous with your time.

Bake Sale at St. Fidelis Herzogfest Booth

Along with Noodles and Beans being served at the St. Fidelis Herzogfest booth, there will be a bake sale. The booth will be open on Friday, August 12, and Saturday, August 13.

Parishioners are asked to donate baked items for the sale. They can be brought to the high school kitchen on Friday, August 12. You may also bring them to the booth on Main Street on Friday or Saturday.

Thank you in advance for your donations.

St. Fidelis Herzogfest Booth Supplies and Volunteers

Herzogfest will be here before we know it!

We are making advanced preparations so we are ready to go for this year's Herzogfest on Friday and Saturday, August 12-13.

In years past, individuals have donated flour, beans, etc. We have found it much easier to prepare when individuals give monetary donations instead. That way we can buy all the needed supplies at one time and know exactly what we have. In the long run, this saves time and we are not wasting anything.

If you would like to make a cash donation for supplies, you can bring it to the Parish Office or put it in the offertory collection at Mass in an envelope marked "Herzogfest". PLEASE MAKE CHECKS PAYABLE TO "ST. FIDELIS CHURCH". With the current shortage of supplies, we will be ordering soon.

Volunteers will also be needed to work the booth and kitchen. Please consider keeping some time available to support this effort. Work schedules will be forthcoming.

If you have any questions or wish to volunteer your help, please contact Rose Ann Dreiling at 785-735-4455.

Thank you in advance for your generous support.

Rose Ann Dreiling

ST. ANN

In honor of the Feast Day of
St. Joachim and St. Ann,
St. Ann Parish will have a
Parish Potluck Breakfast
Sunday, July 24, after Mass.

FAMILY LIFE

On August 2, 2022, we will have our chance to protect women and babies in Kansas by voting YES in favor of the VALUE THEM BOTH Amendment to our state constitution.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Value Them Both Yard Signs

Value Them Both yard signs are now available. Stop by the Parish Activity Center to pick one up to place in your yard, or contact John Braun (785-623-0680) for delivery.

Value Them Both Volunteers

Value Them Both is looking for volunteers to help get the word out about the Constitutional Amendment on the ballot for the August 2nd Primary Election.

If you are willing to make phone calls or go door to door, please contact John Braun at 785-623-0680 or go to valuethemboth.com and click Take Action.

Dear Parishioner, do you know someone who may be interested in joining the Catholic Church? Please give them this invitation...

- Welcome to the Catholic Church

There are 1.2 billion Catholics worldwide, filling more than 221,700 parishes. Each year, many adults are called to join the Catholic faith. How does someone join the Catholic Church? Through a process called the RCIA.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process in which adults become full, participating members of the Catholic Church. Participants, known as catechumens go through a process of studying the Gospel, nurturing their relationship with God, becoming familiar with the Catholic teachings and practices, professing their faith in Jesus and the Church, and receiving the sacraments of initiation: Baptism, Communion, and Confirmation.

"I love those who love me, and those who seek me diligently find me." (Proverbs 8:17)

Who can join?

The Church extends an invitation to all who wish to become members of the Catholic faith. Those who go through the RCIA process fall under one of the following categories:

- Someone who has never been baptized
- Someone who is of another faith and wishes to convert to Catholicism
- An individual who was baptized in another Christian denomination and wishes to become a member of the Catholic faith
- Someone who was baptized in the Catholic Church, but never received the sacraments of First Communion and Confirmation

St. Fidelis, St. Ann and St. Boniface Parishes will begin our RCIA classes on Sunday, September 25, 2022 at the Parish Activity Center in Victoria. If you are thinking about joining the Catholic faith, you are most welcome to join the class. There is no obligation. If you are interested or would like information, please call Father Jim Moster or Shirley Brungardt as soon as possible at 785-735-2777.

Vincent	1,000.00	420.00	420.00	6
Victoria	15,200.00	13,917.00	13,117.00	52

As of July 11, 2022,
$1,847,576 has been raised with $1,525,662 received thus far
toward the $2 million goal of the Annual Appeal.

The Bishop's Annual Appeal — Call to Share is ongoing and will conclude December 31, 2022. This appeal is important as it funds the mission and many ministries of our diocese. The appeal supports our seminarians and retired clergy. It also funds diocesan sponsored events such as the Men's Conference, Anniversary Masses, summer youth programs, and our publications! There are so many things the diocese does, and a large part of what makes this possible is your generosity to the appeal.
