PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord’s Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

The Other Wise Man

The gospel does not tell us how many wise men came to adore the Christ Child. We assume three Magi from three gifts. Ancient traditions suggested four for the four evangelists or twelve for the twelve apostles. Henry van Dyke wrote an inspiring novel, "The Story of the Other Wise Man." A film version is available and is wholesome entertainment in this holiday season.

His novel is about a fictitious wise man, Artaban, who had planned to travel with Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar. He bought three jewels as gifts for the infant king: a sapphire, a ruby, and a pearl. But on the day of departure he stopped to help an injured child and missed the caravan. So he sold the sapphire to outfit a second expedition. When he finally arrived at Bethlehem, the Holy Family had fled to Egypt. But he did rescue one of the Holy Innocents by bribing a soldier with the ruby.

With only the pearl remaining, he set out again to find the new King. When he was close to meeting the Messiah, a cry for help from the unfortunate always delayed him. Thirty years later in Jerusalem he heard that a man was condemned to death who claimed to be the Messiah King. Artaban thought this might be the king he was seeking, so he decided to ransom him with his pearl. But on his way to the praetorium he saw a slave auction where a girl was being sold into bondage. He bought the young woman with the pearl and set her free.

He had now given away his last tribute to the new King, and he had not found him. Suddenly the skies darkened over Calvary, there was an earthquake, and Artaban was crushed by falling rock. As he lay dying, the clouds parted and a voice said, "Whatever you have done to the least of my children, you have done to me." Artaban died knowing that he had found the King many times.

Van Dyke's story is a parable. Artaban is every Christian. We are all on a journey in search of the Messiah King. We have been entrusted with many gifts to offer him. Like Artaban, we will not meet the infant King in person. But on our journey we will meet Him in many others and our gifts to them will be our gifts to Him. "Whatever you have done to the least of my children, you have done to me." On our spiritual journey through life we are that Other Wise Man.

..... and mirth

Congress canceled their Christmas pageant for lack of three wise men.

SAFE ENVIRONMENT PROGRAM

All those who minister to children or young people on a regular basis are to be educated about the nature of child sexual abuse, how to report it, and strategies for prevention.

The Diocese of Salina currently uses a program called CMGCONNECT, a web-based, on-line training program (along with an integrated background check) that specializes in helping churches, schools, and religious organizations create safe environments for children and youth. High School students in grades 9-12 who work with other minors on a regular basis will do their own training through CMGConnect, which covers safe and appropriate ways to interact with other children.

BEFORE beginning any ministry with children in your parish or school, you must have Safe Environment Training and it must be current (taken within the last 5 years).

For more information, and to get instructions on how to log into CMGConnect, please contact the Safety Coordinator of your parish or school.

“Pope Francis has made it clear that the Church must hold the protection of minors amongst her highest priorities.”

On Wednesday, December 20, 2023, the St. Fidelis Religious Education department sponsored Christmas caroling in the evening.

One stop for the carolers was the St. Fidelis Friary where they were greeted by St. Nicholas (our pastor, Fr. Jim Moster).

Enjoying the carols with St. Nick were Fr. Harvey Dinkel (left in doorway) and Fr. Don Debes (right in doorway).

About 20 carolers traveled around town on two trailers. Townsfolk came out of their homes to wave and listen to the singers and the music provided by trumpeters Danny Schippers and the USD 432 music instructor, Max Befort. Afterwards, the group gathered at the V.F.W. Hall where they enjoyed hot chocolate and cookies.
