PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord’s Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

Feast of Sts. Joachim and Anne Wednesday, July 26

World Day of Prayer for Grandparents and the Elderly

“If you pull up the weeds you might uproot the wheat along with them. Let them grow together until harvest ...”

Matthew 13:24-43

Due to the Year of Mercy schedule with Bishop Jerry Vincke, the Mass on Friday, July 28, at the Basilica will be at 6:00 p.m. There will not be a 6:45 a.m. Mass.

Weeds among the Wheat

When the pioneers came to western Kansas they encountered a troublesome pest in the wheat fields, the bindweed. It robbed the soil of moisture and it seemed indestructible. Today's gospel is about weeds and the bindweed is the ultimate weed.

In this parable God allows the weeds to grow along with the wheat. The weeds represent evil. "The weeds," Christ said, "are the children of the evil one." Yet these weeds are allowed to grow along with the wheat until the harvest. The master does not uproot them for fear of uprooting also the good wheat. In his infinite wisdom, God allows evil to coexist with goodness. God did not will that we would live in a paradise free of sin.

This parable is about God's patience with our faults and our failings. He does not weed in the garden of our soul. God allows us the time and space to outgrow our faults. And he calls us to be patient, as he is patient. We are to be patient with our own faults; patient with the faults of others.

If we weed in the lives of others, we uproot goodness within ourselves when we tug at the faults of others. In a special way, we like to weed within our own families.

Spouses want a flawless partner. Parents want the ideal child. In-laws want perfection. One has to wonder how many marriages have been prematurely uprooted and families ruined because the wheat was not allowed to outgrow the weeds.

This is not to suggest that we turn a blind eye to serious failings. There is a time and a way to admonish and to correct. Before you weed in the garden of another's life, pause to consider if your meddling with minor faults will not uproot lasting goodness. Give virtue time to develop. Care and tend, but don't yank at the roots.

One of Aesop's fables is about a gardener who was impatient to see a rose bloom. He knew that there was a beautiful rose in the tiny rose bud. So he peeled the bud open. He did not find that glorious rose.

Rather, he destroyed the budding flower.

The wisdom of God chose an imperfect world with weeds among the wheat. Today's parable is about the latent goodness in imperfection and the wisdom of patience. "Do not pull up the weeds, you might uproot the wheat along with them. Let them grow together until harvest. Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father."

After some discussion, the St. Fidelis Pastoral Council decided it was time to remove the large tree that was on the west side of The Basilica of St. Fidelis. There were many dead branches in the middle of the tree. Removing the tree was in preparation of the landscaping that is currently going on around the church. New grass is being seeded as well as new bushes being planted. On Wednesday, July 12, the tree was cut down by Darren's Lawn Care of Hays, which is also doing the other landscaping.

LEFT: Josh VonLintel with J2 Lease Service donated his time and truck service to drag the tree to its final resting place at the farm of Curt Kuhn on Friday, July 14.

ABOVE: After removing the old bushes and leveling the ground, new bushes were planted on the north side of the church.
