PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord’s Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

Friend or Foe

In this Sunday's gospel Christ asked his followers who people thought he was. Some said Elijah, John the Baptist, a prophet, and finally Peter's profession of faith, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God." Notice that they told him the opinion of his admirers. They did not mention what his enemies thought of him. That can be even more insightful.

When Al Smith was nominated to run for president of the United States he listed grand endorsements from his many friends. His advisors told him, "We know what your friends say about you, we need to know what your enemies say." Al Smith replied, "Ask my in-laws."

Christ did not have trouble with his in-laws, but he did have real enemies, many who sought his life. The most famous of these was Judas his betrayer who said, "I have betrayed innocent blood." Pilate, who condemned Christ to death, said, "I find nothing against this man." His unrelenting opponents, the Pharisees, said, "We know that you are a truthful man and teach the ways of God without courting human favor."

The Samaritan woman at Jacob's well rejected Christ as a despised Jew, but later she told the people. "I have found the Messiah." A Samaritan saying that a Jew is the promised Messiah was unfathomable. Another surprising testimony was from his executioner. The centurion who crucified Christ exclaimed, "Truly, this man was the Son of God!" Finally, there is unexpected testimony from his ultimate opponent, Satan, evil itself. When Christ cast out Satan's demons they said. "Leave us alone, Son of David. We know who you are; you are the Son of God."

Not all the enemies of Christ admired his teaching or conceded his divinity. But their repeated efforts to discredit him is testimony that they feared his goodness and truth which might expose their deceit. Unwittingly they were honoring him by their attempts to demean him. They never questioned his integrity, which implicitly conceded that he was who he said he was, the divine Son of God.

Today we can profit from listening to what the enemies of Christianity have to say about us. They can remind us that we are not living up to the gospel ideals. Perhaps they offer an objective assessment so lacking in our own community. A bitter enemy can be more honest than a flattering friend. Our enemies become our friends when they tell us the painful truth about ourselves. So listen to your enemies. They can tell you what you need to change to be a better person.

... and mirth

Always forgive your enemies; nothing annoys them so much.

From the Pastor...

I was approached by a lady of the parish insisting that I do something about wearing certain women's summer fashions in church, especially in ministering at the altar. She said she represented others. I sometimes hear from men how such fashions are a real distraction to them. I discussed that with a different female parishioner, who said I should tell the men to keep their eyes in the missalette at Mass.

Christian dignity and a sense of respect for God and others definitely suggests an effort to be modest, not only in church, but everywhere. Christian moral teaching challenges each of us to take custody of the eyes and master our own instincts in piety so that we may also have self-respect. Pietas in traditional Latin usage expressed a complex, highly valued Roman virtue; a man with pietas respected his responsibilities to gods, country, parents, and kin. In its strictest sense it was the sort of love a son ought to have for his father and mother.

RCIA

Each year, many adults are called to join the Catholic faith. How does someone join the Catholic Church? Through a process called the RCIA. Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process in which adults become full, participating members of the Catholic Church. Participants, known as catechumens go through a process of studying the Gospel, nurturing their relationship with God, becoming familiar with the Catholic teachings and practices, professing their faith in Jesus and the Church, and receiving the sacraments of initiation: Baptism, Communion, and Confirmation.

Who can join?

The Church extends an invitation to all who wish to become members of the Catholic faith. Those who go through the RCIA process fall under one of the following categories:

- Someone who has never been baptized.
- Someone who is of another faith and wishes to convert to Catholicism.
- An individual who was baptized in another Christian denomination and wishes to become a member of the Catholic faith.
- Someone who was baptized in the Catholic Church, but never received the sacraments of First Communion and Confirmation.

RCIA classes begin on Sunday, September 24, 2023, at the Parish Activity Center in Victoria. If you are thinking about joining the Catholic faith, you are most welcome to join the class. There is no obligation or cost. Please be assured that you will never be quizzed or tested on class material. If you are interested or would like information, please call Father Jim Moster or Shirley Brungardt as soon as possible at 785-735-2777.

CHRISTIAN MOTHERS / ALTAR SOCIETY

The St. Fidelis Christian Mothers/Altar Society held a get-together to thank those who have helped with funeral dinners—either in the kitchen or by providing desserts, a project the organization has overseen for many years. Not all who help are members of the organization.

The gathering took place at the VFW Hall on Monday, August 21, from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. Invitees could come and go as they pleased, with most staying until the end.

Christian Mothers/Altar Society president Jane Wagner stated, “My officers and I thought it was time to show our appreciation to all the volunteers who have been doing this for so many years. I think everyone enjoyed a very relaxed evening together.”

Thirty to 40 people enjoyed the camaraderie along with the good snacks and drinks throughout the evening.
