PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord's Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

“THEN TAKING THE FIVE LOAVES AND THE

LUKE 9:11B - 17

The Body and Blood of the Lord

The gospel for today's feast of Corpus Christi, the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ, is Luke's account of the multiplication of the loaves and fish. It is the most frequently told story in the gospels, recorded six times: once in Luke and John; twice in Matthew and Mark. This story has many spiritual dimensions but primarily the multiplication of the loaves symbolizes the Bread of Life which we receive in the Eucharist.

While most of the miracles of Christ were performed for individuals, the multiplication of loaves was for a large crowd. When we assemble for the celebration of the Eucharist our coming together is important. It is one of the three ways that Christ is made present to the congregation. The first and most sacred is his presence in the Eucharist. His second presence to us is in the Word, proclaimed in the readings and preached in the homily. And the third presence of the Lord at Mass is in the gathering of the assembly. "Where two or three are gathered in my name there am I in their midst."

The Eucharist is community worship. At Mass you never dine alone. Catholics do not receive the Eucharist, Catholics share the Eucharist. When you absent yourself from the Eucharistic assembly, as when you miss a family gathering, you deprive yourself of an enriching experience and also lessen that experience for others.

Consider also the five loaves and two fish. The Lord did not produce an abundance of food out of thin air. He transformed what the people brought. Each of us brings something to the Eucharistic assembly: the talents and efforts of those who have active roles in the celebration; the personal intentions of each one present; our joys and our hopes; our concerns and our sorrows. These are transformed by the Eucharist to a greater spiritual meaning.

Finally, the leftovers. At the Eucharist we receive more grace than we need for the moment. We may often wonder if we really need to go to church so often, every Sunday! What may not seem necessary at the time, will be needed and greatly appreciated later. The Eucharist offers delayed grace.

"Where two or three are gathered in my name there am I in their midst." Those words of the Lord and the multiplication of the loaves have special meaning on this Feast of Corpus Christi, the Body and Blood of Christ. In our gathering for the Eucharist the Lord is made present to transform our gifts with an abundance of grace for even our future needs. That story cannot be told too often.

How to spend an hour before the Most Blessed Sacrament:

THE SILENCE

"Silence gives us a new outlook on everything. We need silence to be able to touch souls. The essential thing is not what we say but what God says to us and through us. Jesus is always waiting for us in silence. In that silence, He will listen to us; there He will speak to our soul, and there we will hear his voice."

— St. Teresa of Calcutta

To celebrate the feast of Corpus Christi, and to acknowledge the kickoff of the Adoration for Peace exposition, cookies will be served outside the main doors of the Basilica on June 21st and 22nd. Please stop and enjoy a treat and a bit of conversation with fellow parishioners.

It's Time!

Corpus Christi, the kick-off date to activate the Adoration for Peace Campaign throughout the diocese, is fast approaching. Weekly adoration in our parish will increase from 2 hours to 72 hours. This adoration begins Tuesday, June 24th. A special thank you to the 93 parishioners who have agreed to spend an hour each week in front of the Blessed Sacrament and those willing to sub when needed. We still have two early-morning hours to fill and can always add to our sub list. If the Spirit is drawing you toward adoration, please contact Jane Wagner (785-735-7029) or the Parish Office (785-735-2777).

Please read the following necessary information:

1. Adoration is in the St. Fidelis Chapel behind the main altar.
2. Everyone is welcome for any amount of time from 7:30 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. Enter through the North Sacristy door during those hours.
3. Participants in adoration from 9:30 p.m. to 6:30 a.m. will enter and exit through the northernmost door behind the monastery. A key code will be provided for access. The Basilica is locked at that time; use of any other door will set off an alarm.
4. At the door of the chapel, there is a bookshelf with material to be used anytime during adoration. Please leave any item marked for use in the Adoration Chapel in the Basilica. Pamphlets and unmarked books can be taken home and returned or passed on when you have finished using them.
5. Following Mass on June 14th, 15th, 21st, and 22nd, sheets with each participant's day and time of adoration, along with a list of subs, will be available on the table at the back of church. Please stop by to pick up your reminder.
6. Key codes will be delivered to the people who need them either via text or phone call.
7. If more than one person shares an hour, exchange phone numbers so if one person cannot make it, you can make certain the other person will be there.

Mexican Martyr Relics Coming to Immaculate Heart of Mary Church

In the 1920's, the government of Mexico implemented harsh consequences to articles in the Mexican constitution. These articles particularly targeted the Catholic Church, limiting the Church's power in Mexico, and even made public practice of the Catholic faith illegal. A rebellion started as a result, now known as the Cristero War. Many lost their lives during this time, some who were executed simply for practicing the faith, including a number of priests who refused to stop celebrating Mass and offering the Sacraments, even in the face of death.

The witness of these martyrs shows the importance of staying firm in the faith throughout all trials and persecutions. They fought for religious freedom, and constant right to worship Jesus Christ. Even though the persecutions in Mexico by the government ended in the late 1920's, the importance of defending religious freedom remains an issue in Mexico, in the United States, and throughout the world.

On Thursday, June 26th, relics of 6 martyrs from the Cristero War will be coming to Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish in Hays. These relics will be on display throughout the day, beginning at 8:00 a.m. (at the start of daily Mass), and ending at 7:00 p.m. (at the end of the daily Spanish Mass). Prayer cards and information will be provided in both English and in Spanish.

In addition, we would like to thank the Knights of Columbus for sponsoring this event. If you would like more information on the martyrs, you can find it at: <https://www.kofc.org/en/news-room/mexican-martyrs/index.html>. There is also an excellent movie, For Greater Glory: The True Story of Cristiada, which depicts events during the Cristero War.

All are welcome to come and adore the relics of these martyrs and pray for religious freedom throughout the world!
