PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord’s Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

“Receive the HOLY SPIRIT”

John 20:19-23

God Within Us

Once upon a time Satan held counsel with his demons to find the best place to hide God. The first devil said, "On the top of the highest mountain." The next said, "No, at the bottom of the deepest ocean." But a third demon said, "Let us hide God within each person. They will never look within themselves."

The spirit of God within us is a universal religious experience. Buddhists and Hindus do not believe in a personal God. Muslims and Jews do not believe that Jesus of Nazareth is God's Son. But all religions, even the most primitive, believe in the spirit of God within us.

Today Christians celebrate the feast of Pentecost, the coming of the Holy Spirit to the apostles, to the church, and to each believer. The Catholic Catechism says that the baptized are temples of the Holy Spirit. Theologians speak of the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. Satan and his demons know this truth of our faith and they fear it. St. Catherine wrote, "The demons believe, and they tremble."

Those demons know that constant activity — as in our digital age of computers, cell phones, or televisions — can rob us of the peace and quiet needed to know the presence of God in our lives. St. Augustine wrote: "I sought you everywhere outside myself, but you were within me." St. Theresa said, "If God is to be found He will be found within, tapping on the window panes of silent souls."

When Elijah felt abandoned by the Lord, God said to him, "Go and stand on the mountain and the Lord will pass by. There was a violent wind crushing rocks, but the Lord was not in the wind; after the wind, an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake; after the earthquake, a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire. After the fire, a soft silent whisper." (1Kg 19:5-8) The psalmist wrote, "Be still and know that I am God." (Ps 46:10) Jesus said to his busy disciples, "Come away with me by yourselves to a quiet place and rest." (Mk 6:32)

In today's gospel Christ breathed on the apostles and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit." At baptism we received that same spirit making us temples of the Holy Spirit. On this feast of Pentecost we celebrate the spirit of God within us. The devils hope that we will never look within. But in quiet prayer we can all find the Holy Spirit "tapping on the window panes of our silent soul."

If you already have personal Bluetooth hearing aids that are controllable from your cell phone, you can download an app on your cell and hear in church through your hearing aids.

Just download the WaveCAST Audio Receiver app by Williams Sound LLC from the Apple App Store on i-phones or from Google

Play or Play Store on android phones.

While in church when the sound system is turned on, click the WaveCAST icon and select the church's "HearingAid" wi-fi option to connect to the system. The password is also "hearingaid".
