The Way

In today's gospel Jesus explains to his apostles how his relationship with his heavenly Father opens the way for all his followers to share in the life of God.

"In my Father's house there are many dwelling places. I will go and prepare a place for you, Where I am going you know the way. Thomas said to him, "Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?" Jesus said to him, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me."

*I am
the Way, the Truth and the Life*
John 14:6

The early Christians spoke of their life as Christians simply, as The Way. The gospels taught them the life and the teachings of Christ, but it also inspired them to live according to those ideals. The way can be a map, but it can also be a method. The first followers of Christ knew the way, and they followed the way.

Today many use the GPS on their cell phone. It can show you the way, the correct roads to take to get from here to there. But the way to drive those roads safely and courteously is another matter. Road hogs know the way to their destination, but they do not know the way to respect other drivers.

We are pilgrims on a journey through this world to our everlasting home. St. Augustine said that the road is rough but it has been worn smooth by Christ and his saints who have gone before us. The trail has been blazed. Christ is the way through this life to life eternal, the path and the pattern

Philosophers of every age have wrestled with the best way to live. In Eastern religions the Way is known as Tao, an ideal of living in harmony with the universe. Today secular humanists teach rationalism as the way. Atheists hold that we ourselves are the way. New agers believe that the latest social fad is the way.

To all these philosophies and religions Christ responds, "I am the Way." Christ did not say, "This is the way," or "That is the way," or "There is a way." He said, "I am the way." Christianity is not a religious philosophy, or a creed of faith, or a moral code. Although it does offer all of those. Christianity is a person, Jesus Christ. And living as a Christian is developing a personal relationship with that person, Jesus of Nazareth, the eternal Son of God, the only one who could truly say, "I am the way."

... and mirth

If your way through life is easy, you're probably going the wrong way.

NIGHT OF HEALING FAITH

Are any among you sick? They should call for the elders of the church and have them pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord. The prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise them up; and anyone who has committed sins will be forgiven. Therefore confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The prayer of the righteous is powerful and effective. -James 5:15-16
