PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord’s Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

School Bells and Church Bells

School bells are ringing again. They not only announce the end of a carefree summer for students, but they also remind adults that we now return to a more regular life. The daily schedule holds us to complete the task at hand. Without regular hours, too often we simply do not get our work done.

This truth of school and shop and store applies also to our spirit. Some suggest a spiritual life free from all obligations. "I don't need Sunday church or daily prayers. My soul enjoys the total freedom of the spirit." It is true that an essential element of the spiritual life is openness to the promptings of the spirit, a willingness to be moved to new ways of thinking and acting. But the foundation of the spiritual life rests on basic values that are nurtured by regular observance.

The spiritual models in the gospels are examples of fidelity to religious practices. Zechariah was told that he would be the father of John the Baptist "when he was serving as priest in his turn before God to enter the sanctuary of the Lord." Simeon was promised that he would not see death before he had seen the Messiah. "He came in the Spirit into the temple according to the custom of the law." The prophetess

Anna also came upon the Christ Child at that time. "She never left the temple, but worshiped night and day with prayer and fasting." All of these encountered the Lord in the routine practice of their faith.

The gospels tell us that the parents of Jesus were devout observant Jews: "According to the Law of Moses, they took the child up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord." "Each year his parents went to Jerusalem for the feast of Passover." Christ and his disciples faithfully observed the Jewish feasts of Tabernacles, Dedication, and Passover. The gospel of Luke tells us that Jesus "went according to his custom into the synagogue on the Sabbath."

Jean Millet's painting The Angelus shows a peasant couple in the field pausing to pray as the Angelus bell peals from the distant church steeple. The ringing of the Angelus at six, noon, and six is a call to prayer. The daily prayer of the church which complements the Eucharist is called The Liturgy of the Hours, reminding us by its very name to be faithful to regular prayer.

School bells are ringing again to call students to their classes. Church bells ring every day to praise God, and to invite us to honor Him at regular worship.

Recent Quotes from Visitors to The Basilica of St. Fidelis

“Beyond belief. Wrong turns got me here.”

“Not my first trip but always awe inspiring.”

“You are blessed to have this church.”

“Our favorite holy stop!”

“Unbelievably so amazing and beautiful.”

“Thank you for leaving it open for prayer.”

“My great grandfather was the contractor of this church (EFA Clark). My prayer is that many have been blessed by its presence.”

“Please help us get well”

Hearing Assists Available for Use During Mass in The Basilica

St. Fidelis has wireless hearing assists with adjustable volume that connect directly to the church's sound system. They are available at the Parish Office. Just pay a small deposit which will be refunded upon its returned.

If you have personal Bluetooth hearing aids that are controlled from your cell phone, you can download the WaveCAST Audio Receiver app by Williams Sound LLC. While in church—when the sound system is turned on, click the WaveCAST icon and select the church's “HearingAid” wi-fi option. The password is also “hearingaid”. You can control the volume, etc. from the individual hearing aid program already on your phone.
