PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord's Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

Devils and Demons

This Sunday we read the story of the first miracle in the Gospel of Mark where Jesus cast the demon out of a possessed man. In the gospels Jesus frequently confronts demons and frees those possessed. There are seven such exorcisms, more than any other type of miracle. Christ gave sight to the blind three times, cured the paralyzed three times, and twice multiplied the loaves and fish. We seldom hear of demons today, so we wonder why there were many in the gospels.

There is a subtle clue in today's gospel story: the demon knew who Christ was. "I know who you are, the Holy One of God." (Mk1:24) The forces of evil seldom allow goodness to go unchallenged. In the gospel of Luke it is clear that the primary struggle in the life of Jesus is with the devil, beginning with the three temptations in the desert to the tragic events of Holy Week where Luke mentions Satan three times.

Another consideration is the culture of the time when those accounts were written. In that age it was common to refer to any serious problem as the work of evil spirits. Demons were thought to be the force behind blindness, paralysis, even death. Today we have precise scientific terms for every illness: carcinoma, influenza, arthritis. Yet simply giving a name to an aberration of nature does not explain why it has occurred. The ancients might well respond to our scientific perspective, "Yes, carcinoma. But why is there cancer? Why is there COVID? Why does nature malfunction?" Science knows the what, but not the why.

It is not uncommon today for even sophisticated people to refer to overwhelming personal or medical problems analogously as evil spirits. We speak of the demons of addiction, obsessive compulsions, evil gossip. And we all struggle with our own inner demons. Sudden irrational impulses to unruly behavior we often humorously attribute to demons, "The devil made me do it."

Pope Francis, to the bewilderment of his progressive admirers, frequently refers to the threats of the devil. "Many have been led to believe that the devil is a myth, but the devil exists." "The devil uses envy to try to thwart the proclamation of the Gospel." "The great gossip is the devil." "Never dialogue with the devil."

Evil is a reality in our world, although it is often masked as a good, which can deceive us into being part of it. In a spiritual sense, we need Christ to come again and cast out the demons that tempt us to compromise our faith.

... and mirth

Gossip is the devil's cell phone.

Prot. N. 03142/2023-413/23/I

DECREE

The Apostolic Penitentiary, wishing to increase the piety of the faithful and the salvation of souls, by virtue of the faculties granted to it in a most special way by His Holiness, Francis, Our Father in Christ and by Divine Providence, Pope, keeping in mind the petitions recently presented by the Rev. Ministers General from the Conference of the Franciscan Family, on the eight hundredth anniversary of the representation of the Creche that St. Francis first set up in Greccio in 1223, drawing from the heavenly treasures of the Church, graciously grants the Plenary Indulgence under the usual conditions (Sacramental Confession, Eucharistic Communion and prayer for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff) to be enjoyed by the repentant faithful moved by Divine love, beginning with the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, December 8, 2023, until the solemn day of the Presentation of the Lord, February 2, 2024, which they may apply, by way of suffrage, also for the souls of the faithful still in Purgatory, if they will visit as pilgrims any Franciscan Church throughout the world, in groups or individually, and devoutly participate in the Jubilee rites, or at least stand before the Creche prepared therein, spending a suitable period of time in pious meditations, concluding with the Our Father, the Profession of Faith and invocations to the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, Joseph and St. Francis of Assisi.

The elderly, the infirm, and those who for a serious reason cannot leave their homes, will equally be able to gain the Plenary Indulgence with repentance of any sin and with the intention of fulfilling as soon as possible the three usual conditions, participating spiritually in the Jubilee celebrations, with the offering of their prayers, pains and the discomforts of their lives to our merciful God.

In order that access to divine forgiveness through the Church may succeed more easily, this Penitentiary earnestly begs the priests of the Franciscan Family to lend themselves with a ready and generous spirit to the celebration of Penance.

This Decree is valid notwithstanding anything contrary to what is written.

Given in Rome, at the Palace of the Apostolic Penitentiary, on the 14th day of November in the year of our Lord MMXXIII.
