PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord’s Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

The Grapes of Grace

The parables that are so characteristic of the teachings of Christ are not found in the gospel of John. Instead, John's gospel uses two metaphors: the good shepherd and the branches of the vine. Today's gospel reading offers his image of the vine and branches to teach this basic message of Christ: we can share in the life of God through the mystery of grace when we remain united to Christ.

This illustration of the branches of the vine was readily grasped by the audience of Christ which was familiar with the cultivation of vineyards. Although many today have never seen a vineyard, we do care for plants and gardens and can readily appreciate the message. The branches share in the life of the vine and lose that life when separated from it.

"I am the true vine and my Father is the vine grower." "I am the vine, you are the branches." The first verse assures us that Christ shares the divine life of God the Father; the second builds on the first to explain that through Christ we can also be part of the life which He shares with his Father. The theological term for this mystery of faith is grace.

The Catholic Catechism explains: "Sanctifying grace introduces us into the inner life of the Trinity. This gratuitous gift from God is infused by the Holy Spirit into our soul to heal it of sin and sanctify it. This grace responds to our deepest yearning, as it calls us to enrich our human existence with divine life. Grace requires our cooperation to be fruitful; it must be freely received."

Sanctifying grace should not be misunderstood as our becoming divine beings. We are not divinized, but we are aided by the merits of Christ to live an elevated human life. Grace is derived from the Incarnation, when Jesus of Nazareth was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and assumed our human nature. He was and remained a divine person, but took on our human nature in time. This event has transformed humanity. Since God was once man, humanity is forever changed, invited to share in the very life of God.

This gift of grace from God to share in divine life is one of the great treasures of our Christian faith. When Joan of Arc was asked by her critics if she was living in God's grace she replied, "If I am not, may it please God to put me in it; if I am, may it please God to keep me there. I desire nothing more."

High School Students Wanting To Visit Homebound, Elderly

A group of high school girls would like to visit our homebound, shut ins, and elderly. They will come once a week at a time that is convenient for you. They also may even bring a cooked meal for you.

Please consider welcoming these girls into your home for a visit. They will do this until the end of the school year, and maybe longer if it works out.

If you would like a visit, please contact Jan at the parish office.

Cleaning of the Church

The remainder of the cleaning needed in the church will be done in stages.

Our next project, scheduled for Saturday, May 8, will be to clean the lower windows, the granite pillars, the wood on the front of the choir loft, and the tops of the confessionals. We will be using scaffolding and tall ladders to reach the high spots.

Cleaning supplies will be provided, but buckets and tall ladders are needed.

Work will begin at 8:00 a.m. and hopefully be done by noon.

Please call Marilyn Braun at 785-735-4968 if you can help.

Parish Council Elections in May

St. Fidelis Parish will have Parish Council elections in May. Those who have offered to serve their parish by running for a position on the Council are: John Braun (currently serving on the Finance Council), Ryan Lichter (running for reelection), Curt Kuhn, and Marilyn Braun (running for reelection).

Please consider giving of your time and talents by running for one of the positions on the Parish Council. We meet once a month. If interested, please contact Fr. Jim or any current council member (they are listed in the church bulletin), or Jan at the Parish Office.

THANK YOU !

Church Memorabilia

When you're cleaning out your attic, closets, basement, or nooks and crannies and come across items that are related to the Basilica of Saint Fidelis, consider donating them to the church.

Pictures of weddings, baptisms, or any event in church—especially ones that can be dated to a specific time—can help pinpoint when things happened.

Visitors are interested in knowing more about the church and having items or pictures or articles or anything church-related can help us keep the history accurate and alive.

Before throwing things in the trash, contact Connie at the Parish Office (785-735-2777) to see if it is something the church could use for historical purposes.

Also, if you want to keep your pictures or articles, consider bringing them in to be scanned, and then you can take them home again.

THANK YOU!

Catholic Home Missions Appeal

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, public Masses were suspended across the country at the time of the 2020 Catholic Home Missions Appeal (CHMA). Unfortunately, this significantly impacted the Appeal, resulting in a decrease of more than 63% in funds collected from the prior year. However, as the pandemic continues across the world, the Catholic Home Missions Appeal has remained faithful in providing vital assistance to 87 dioceses and eparchies across the United States, its territories, and several former territories in the Pacific.

Please prayerfully consider contributing to this year’s Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Amid so many great needs, we are especially grateful for your support.

You may place your donation in the weekly collection at Mass (in an envelope marked “Catholic Home Mission Appeal”).
