PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord’s Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

GIRL SCOUT SUNDAY

“...so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life.” John 3:14-21

God So Loved the World

In today's gospel Christ tells Nicodemus: "God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life." (Jn 3:16) That verse is often referred to as the gospel in miniature. It summarizes the message of all the gospels, but especially the gospel of John.

Nicodemus first encountered Jesus when he sought him out one night to discuss his teachings. Later, Nicodemus reminded his colleagues in the Sanhedrin that the law requires that a person be heard before being judged. And finally, Nicodemus came forward after the crucifixion to assist Joseph of Arimathea in preparing the body of Jesus for burial.

Today's gospel reading is the account of the first meeting of Nicodemus with Christ. The gospel says that Nicodemus came at night. This suggests that it was to be private and unknown to his peers in the Sanhedrin. Nicodemus asked about the teachings of Christ, who told him that he must be "born from above." This confused Nicodemus. Christ explained that it was a "birth of water and the spirit," a reference to baptism and receiving the Holy Spirit.

Christ then told Nicodemus that the source of this life of grace would be his death and resurrection: "Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in Him may have eternal life."

And finally, the climax of their discussion: "God so loved the world that He gave His Only Son, that everyone who believes in Him might not perish but might have eternal life."

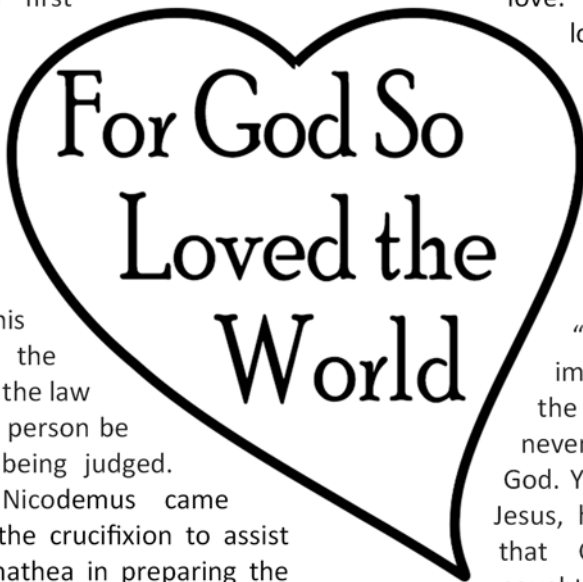

God's love is further explained in the first epistle of John, "Love consists in this: not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. God is love. Whoever lives in love lives in God, and God in them."

Commenting on today's gospel reading, Pope Francis wrote:

"Nicodemus was an important member of the Sanhedrin, but he never stopped seeking God. Yet in speaking with Jesus, he comes to know that God has already sought him; that God waits for him, that God loves him personally. 'God so loved the world that He gave His Only Son, that everyone who believes in Him might not perish but might have eternal life.' This eternal life is the immeasurable and gratuitous love of the Father that Jesus gave on the cross, offering his life for our salvation."

... and mirth
