PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord’s Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

The Mother-in-Law

A mother-in-law is often the butt of unfair jokes, arbitrarily blaming her for family problems. A mother-in-law gets a bum rap in our society. Not in today's gospel. When Christ cured St. Peter's mother-in-law, the gospel tells us that she immediately got up and waited on them. She used the gift of good health to serve others. St. Peter's mother-in-law is a model for using our talents and blessings not simply for our own good, but for the benefit of others as well.

As St. Peter's mother-in-law, we are often in need of a favor from the Lord. And we promise many things if God will but grant us that favor. For example, if God will help me to get a good job, I will be generous to charity. If God will give me back my physical health, I will never miss church. If God will cure my sick child or my sick parent, I will be kinder to them. But once the favor is granted, the promise is easily forgotten. Not St. Peter's mother-in-law.

She reminds us that the gifts we have received from God are to be used with a generous heart. My health is not just about my own personal well-being. It also concerns the good of my family, my friends, and the wider community. My finances are not just about my own personal good fortune. They are a responsibility regarding others, especially those in need. My education is not simply about advancing my own career. It is about enriching the whole community with my professional training.

At times we save our talents, like fine china waiting for a special occasion. Someday, I will volunteer to help at church or school. Someday, I will join a prayer group. Someday, I will pledge to a charity. But someday seldom comes. Many gifts of time and talent and treasure have been safely stored away in the vaults of apathy never to be used.

The mother-in-law of St. Peter was not the only one in the Bible to be of service to others. There were others, such as Naomi, the mother-in-law of Ruth. Although a poor widow herself, she provided a home for Ruth when she lost her husband. In doing so she secured the lineage of David which brought us the Messiah.

So our mothers-in-law may have the last laugh in all those jokes. Scripture reminds us that there were mothers-in-law who taught us by example this essential duty of a Christian — you truly love your neighbors by helping them.

... and mirth

Why did Christ cure St. Peter's mother-in-law? To get even with St. Peter for denying him three times.
