PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord’s Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register , Salina Diocese newspaper

Spiritual Twins

Today's gospel refers to the apostle Thomas as "Didymus," which is Greek for "twin." Thomas probably had a twin sister or brother. In the family of faith, we are all twins of the apostle Thomas. If you find it unflattering to be a twin of the doubting Thomas, it will be helpful to know more about this remarkable apostle.

The only thing that most people know about Thomas is that he was the stubborn hold-out who demanded

Thomas is again the odd man out, not in doubt, but in loyalty.

The other gospel story involving Thomas occurs when Jesus said that he must return to the Father. "I am going to prepare a place for you. You now the way that leads where I go." Thomas replied, "We do not even know where you are going; how can we know the way?" That is not a lack of faith, but an honest faith. His confusion is expressed as a desire to understand.

tangible proof. Our secular culture refers to a skeptic as a Doubting Thomas. However, the apostle Thomas has been the victim of a bad press.

In fairness, Christians should know the full story of the original Doubting Thomas. In addition to today's well-known passage, there are two other gospel stories involving Thomas. The first occurs when Christ says that he is going back to Bethany to comfort the grieving family of Lazarus. The apostles had just come from Bethany where a mob had tried to kill Jesus. All the other apostles protested that returning to Bethany would endanger them. Only Thomas spoke up and said, "Let us go along to die with him." This time

An unexamined faith is not an authentic faith. Thomas is a model for modern Christians who raise honest questions, from the perspective of a sincere faith. Our consistent faith is more important than our occasional doubts, loyalty more important than lapses, strengths more important than weaknesses.

We should rejoice that we are twins of Thomas in faith, and proud to say along with him, "My Lord and my God."

..... and mirth

Wrinkles are something other people have, similar to my character lines.

HUMAN TRAFFICKING is HUMAN SLAVERY

When: May 3, 2023, 7:00 p.m.

Where: Victoria High School Auditorium

Presenter: Sr. Margaret Nacke,
CJS Ed.D

All high school students and adults are welcome.

Speaker Margaret Nacke, a Sister of St. Joseph of Concordia, KS., founded U.S. Catholic Sisters Against Human Trafficking ten years ago. It is a faith-based national network that offers education, supports access to survivor services, and engages in advocacy to end modern-day slavery. Recently Sister received the Radical Abolitionist Award from the S.O.A.P. project (Save Our Adolescents from Prostitution), a project committed to a survivor-centered approach to ending human trafficking. Sister Nacke has educated the public about the way people are bought, sold, and discarded as human beings.

DIOCESE

April Is Child Abuse Prevention Month

Throughout the year, especially during this month of April, all are asked to increase awareness, to educate ourselves and the community, and to seek healing for those who have been so tragically impacted by child abuse. We must heed God's call to care for the most vulnerable among us and continue our efforts as we promise to protect, pledge to heal.

Homebound Services

St. Fidelis offers homebound Eucharistic ministry to all three parishes every Wednesday morning and every Sunday after the 10:00 a.m. Mass. If you would like to receive Communion in your home, contact the Parish Office.

Fr. Jim will also come to your home and offer the anointing of the sick or confessions.

A Very Important Project CHILD CARE

The Victoria Community Coalition, Inc. (VCC) is now moving forward on the Child Care portion of the St. John's Project. We are in need of volunteers who would be willing to work with the officers to gain more information from local and state Child Care affiliates regarding child care provision and requirements. We have a grant due on May 15, 2023, and your help is needed. If you have any interest at all in the well-being, growth, and care of the children in our community, please contact Nancy Piatt, committee chairperson, at 785-656-2793.

Divine Mercy Sunday

A Divine Mercy Prayer Service will be held at 3:00 p.m. on Sunday, April 16, at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, Hays. The hour will include Eucharistic Exposition, the Chaplet of Divine Mercy in song, litany of prayers, and meditation.

Jesus entrusted Saint Maria Faustina with the task of spreading the message of his Divine Mercy through a series of visions and interior locutions in the 1930s. When Pope John Paul II canonized Saint Faustina on April 30, 2000, he declared the Sunday after Easter to be Divine Mercy Sunday and an official feast day of the Church.

Everyone is encouraged to pray the novena to the Divine Mercy, which begins on Good Friday. Leaflets on this novena can be found at the entrances of the tri-parish churches. Confessions will be heard at St. Mary's beginning at 2:00 p.m. This prayer service is sponsored by Divine Mercy Radio.

THANK YOU!

I wish to express my sincere gratitude to all who helped make our Holy Week and Easter services so beautiful for all of us. It took teamwork, dedication, talent and devotion to God and our parishioners to make it what it was in all the Tri-parishes.

Many contributed in various ways.

Musicians, singers, ushers, decorators, altar servers, readers, eucharistic ministers, donors, and behind the scenes planners and workers, as well as every parishioner and visitor who attended.

This kind of thing does not just happen.

It requires a great cooperative effort that results from faith and devotion.

May God bless and reward each of you for sharing in something beautiful for Him.

Fr. Jim
