PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord’s Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

A Woman and Her Cell Phone

Few people today are without their cell phone. It is a personal item and its contents are an identity. Perhaps more so for a woman. In gospel times a woman did not have a cell phone. But she did have a water jar for providing fresh water for the home. As a woman's cell phone today, the design of that jar was carefully chosen. Her water jar was an image of herself, an alter ego.

Today's gospel says that after her debate with Christ, the woman left her water jar at the well and went to tell the people that she had found the Messiah. She left her water jar at the well! No woman in Palestine walked away from a well without her water jar. No woman today walks out of a store and leaves her cell phone on the counter.

Small details in a gospel story can have great symbolism. When Jesus called the blind beggar, the gospel says, "He threw aside his cloak, came to him, received his sight and followed him on the way." Casting aside his cloak was a symbol of leaving his former way of life behind; following Christ on the way was the mark of a disciple.

The Samaritan woman abandoning her water jar at the well was leaving behind her former self for a new life in Christ. Telling the people that she had found the Messiah was the mission of a devoted disciple.

This gospel of the Samaritan woman at Jacob's well is Lent in a nutshell. She comes to the well where the Lord confronts her about her life. That was her Ash Wednesday. When he asks her for a drink of water she is suspicious and hesitant, as we may be of Lenten repentance. So he offers her the water of life, the grace of a new life.

Reluctantly she admits her infidelity; she goes to confession. Leaving her water jar behind she changes the direction of her life. Finally she joyfully proclaims that the promised Messiah has come, which was her Easter Sunday.

Perhaps the Lord is asking you to leave something behind this Lent. It may be an indulgent weakness, an unforgiving heart, a sinful habit. The courage to leave such things behind is offered to us in the living water of God's grace when we fast, say our daily prayers, or help those in need. The Samaritan woman offered us the example of the new life that Lent offers when she left her water jar at Jacob's well.

Tour Guides Needed

Spring and Summer are approaching.
That means more people wanting to tour
The Basilica of St. Fidelis.

Tours are offered for larger groups and usually take place in the late morning or early afternoon; however, there are exceptions. Tours can last anywhere from 15 minutes to an hour depending on the touring group and the tour guide.

We can provide you with a history book to get you started. You can also observe a current tour guide to help you learn the process; however, you are welcome to tell your own personal stories related to the church. The more you do the tours, the easier and more fun it can be.

And if you have any questions, we will try to help as much as we can.

If you are willing to help, please call the Parish Office at 785-735-2777.

*Comments from tourists can be very uplifting.
We hear so often how "beautiful" and well taken care of the church is.*

Loving Father, you are our constant companion, always there to guide our ways. We thank you for the blessings of this day. Help us always see and feel your love and share it with our friends, families, and all those around us.

I ask this through Jesus Christ you son. Amen.

A LITTLE CHUCKLE

An Irishman's First Drink with His Son

I was reading an article last night about fathers and sons, and memories came flooding back to the time I took my son out for his first drink.

Off we went to our local bar, which is only two blocks from the house.

I got him a Guinness Stout. He didn't like it so I drank it.

Then I got him an Old Style. He didn't like it either, so I drank it.

It was the same with the Coors and the Bud.

By the time we got down to the Irish whiskey, I could hardly push the stroller back home.

Happy  St. Patrick's Day
