PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord’s Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

The Prayer Book of the Bible

Be still & know that I am God.
PSALM 46:10

When the risen Christ appeared to his apostles he explained the meaning of his death and resurrection with this very significant verse: "Everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and in the psalms must be fulfilled." (Lk 24:45) The psalms help us to understand the meaning of the life and death of Christ.

The significance of the psalms as prayer is evident in our liturgy. The book of psalms is the only book of the Bible from which we read at every Mass. There is a gospel reading at Mass, but from one of four gospels. At every Mass we pray a Responsorial Psalm, which is enhanced when it is sung. The word psalm is taken from the Greek word meaning song.

The psalms are Semitic poetry, different from our poetry, requiring some background to be appreciated. The literary technique of the psalms is parallelism, a rhythming of ideas rather than words. It is a way of delving deeper into a concept by looking at it from more than one perspective, from different angles.

The basic theme of the psalms is praising God, and rabbis refer to the psalms as the Book of Praises. There are different types of psalms: messianic, penitential, historical, etc. This wide variety offers a richness in prayer. There is a fitting psalm for every occasion. If you want to cry, there is a psalm; if you want to complain, there is a psalm; and if you want to rejoice, there are many psalms.

The forcefulness of the psalms can be startling. Their vocabulary is often blunt, even challenging God about the injustices in our world. The psalms enter into the dynamic of faith and doubt. In the other books of the Bible, God speaks to us; in the psalms we speak to God, and He speaks back to us. They are dynamic prayers, a powerful exchange between the human and the divine.

Dorothy Day said, "My strength returns to me with a cup of coffee and praying the psalms." C.S. Lewis wrote, "The psalms express the same delight in God which made David dance." Billy Graham said, "I read the psalms every day because they teach me how to get along with God."

St. Ambrose said, "The psalms are the gymnasium of the soul." The psalms enrich your faith as well as your prayer life. They "will set your soul in silence and peace as a child rests in its mother's arms." (Ps 131:2)

With Sympathy

The sympathy of the parishes is extended to the family of Patricia "Patty" (Schrant) Anschutz of Walker, Kansas, who passed away on Tuesday, April 2, 2024. A Mass of Christian Burial was held at St. Ann Catholic Church, Walker, on Saturday, April 6, 2024, with burial in St. Ann Cemetery, Walker.

You Asked for It

Everyone enjoyed the last potluck so much we decided to do it again. A spring potluck is being planned for Tuesday, May 7, with time and place to be announced. All members of the Christian Mothers, A Stitch and a Prayer, and all funeral helpers including those who provide desserts are invited. Save the date and watch the bulletin for more information closer to the date. We look forward to another evening of fun and fellowship.

There are still a number of weekday Masses at St. Fidelis available for scheduling intentions in 2024.

Although we appreciate donations to the St. Fidelis Food Bank, we cannot accept food without knowledge of where it came from.

Several times recently, food has been left at the kitchen door of the Parish Office without any note.

Please leave a note or call the Parish Office to let us know you will be dropping some items at the door.

THANK YOU!

Church, Chat, and Coffee

Come by the north sacristy Tuesday mornings following Mass for a cup of Joe, and if you can, stay and chat. If time does not permit you to visit, just grab a cup to go. Coffee will be ready and to-go cups available. We look forward to sharing some Java and conversation together.

The Shroud of Turin

On Tuesday, April 16, at 6:30 p.m., we will meet in the North Sacristy of The Basilica of St. Fidelis to view pictures of the Shroud of Turin and hear the scientific facts that support its authenticity. Everyone is invited to share the evening.

Hearing Assists Available for Use During Mass in The Basilica

St. Fidelis has wireless hearing assists with adjustable volume that connect directly to the church's sound system.

If you are interested in trying one, come by the Parish Office, pay a small deposit, and keep your unit until you don't need it. We will refund your deposit once the unit is returned.

If you already have personal bluetooth hearing aids that are controllable from your cell phone, you can download an app on your cell and hear in church through your hearing aids.

Just download the WaveCAST Audio Receiver app by Williams Sound LLC from the Apple App Store on i-phones or from Google Play or Play Store on android phones.

While in church when the sound system is turned on, click the WaveCAST icon and select the church's "HearingAid" wi-fi option to connect to the system. The password is also "hearingaid".

You will then control the volume, etc. from your individual hearing aid program already on your phone.

It's Getting Closer to Summer Lunch Time at the PAC

Summer will be here before we know it. Kids will be out of school and will want a delicious meal to satisfy their noon appetites.

The Summer Lunch Guys (Jerry and Leroy Schmidtberger) are already thinking about what they will need for the meals they will be cooking and serving.

Last year, they served approximately 130 pounds of ground beef in the various meals they made.

If you are willing to donate ground beef or money towards its purchase and other supplies for the Summer Meal Program, please contact the Parish Office at 601 10th Street or call 785-735-2777.

NEEDED: ST. FIDELIS CHURCH HANDY MAN

A paid position for a part time—hourly wage person is needed. This would involve changing light bulbs, mowing grass, helping with chores around the parish offices, and doing some minor repairs around church and PAC as needed. Flexible hours. If interested, please contact Fr. Jim.

ST. ANN

St. Ann Christian Mothers Meeting

St. Ann Christian Mothers will meet after Mass on Saturday, April 20. Dues of $5.00 are due to LuAnn Hammersmith.

DIOCESE

April Is Child Abuse Prevention Month

Did you know... Hope is rising. Throughout scripture there is evidence that we are called to be ambassadors of hope and healing. Did you know children of abuse long to hear this message of hope? Victims of crime, their family, and loved ones need to know that their voices are heard. Organizations throughout the nation are striving to share the message that He has risen and there is hope. Each of us has a unique ability to support individuals who are hurting, to promote healthy relationships, and to build communities that are safe from those who may want to do harm. How has He called you to be an ambassador of hope and healing?

APRIL Human Trafficking Alert

There is no more pernicious abuse of power than human trafficking. This modern-day slavery is a crime that takes all of us, working together, to eradicate. Alliance to End Human Trafficking—Founded and supported by U.S. Catholic Sisters, 7575 Grand River Ave. 1-1009, Brighton, MI 48114.

Thank you to the Jubilee Choir for sharing your angelic voices today. The Jubilee Choir is directed by Ms. Sheila Stone with Mrs. Becky Scheck accompanying at First Communion, and pianist Mrs. Kathy Amrein. We are so grateful for their service; the opportunity they give the children to serve in a joyful and meaningful way at Mass. We love hearing their voices as they sing and pray twice! Thank you ladies and thank you children!

"May you always know the peace of Jesus, the light of His love, and the joy of His life within you."

Thank you to our second grade catechists, Mrs. Jeanna Wellbrock and Mrs. Jana Fross, for being so excited about sharing their love for the Sacraments of Reconciliation and especially the Eucharist!

Parents, we thank you for your active participation in your child's faith formation along with your participation in the parent meetings and retreats. Your role will always be of the utmost importance in your child's faith formation, relationship with Jesus, and love for the Sacraments. No children's ministry or faith formation class is a comparable substitute for the catechesis and discipleship you provide at home.

The Office of Religious Education wishes you all a blessed and joyful summer!
