I Call You Friends

This gospel is a rare instance of Christ referring to his followers as friends. He usually speaks of his disciples or his apostles. In this passage he says, "I call you friends."

The term friend is opposed to slave. A slave acts under duress, Christ expects His followers to act freely, out of love, as a friend. Christianity is not to be a slave-master relationship, but a friendship. We are to be motivated by love of God, not fear of punishment.

In the gospels Christ addressed only two individuals as friend. Surprisingly, not Peter, John the Baptist, or John the beloved disciple. The two referred to by Christ as friends were Lazarus and Judas. Lazarus whom Christ restored from death to life, and Judas who betrayed him.

There is a lesson in each instance. Lazarus, brother of Martha and Mary, was called a friend as a term of endearment, a reminder of how life is enriched by friends. When Christ was informed that Lazarus was dying, he said, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, I am going to awaken him." They were friends, they shared life. Christ restored Lazarus to life, giving him a share in His own life, eternal life. Lazarus' friendship with Christ led to a fuller life, both here and hereafter.

The use of the title "friend" for Judas is quite the opposite, an insult. It indicates the deep pain inflicted by a failure in friendship. When Judas led the soldiers to arrest Jesus at Gethsemane, Judas greeted Christ with a kiss of betrayal. Jesus said to him,

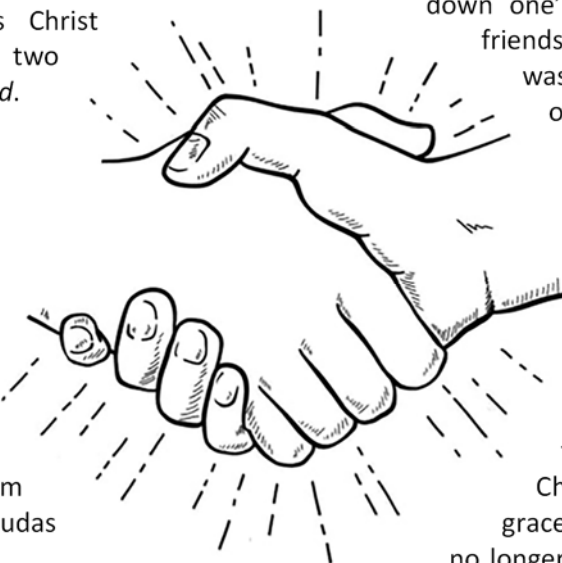

"Friend, do what you have come for." Judas was offered friendship, but abused it. He was trusted, but was not trustworthy. No one can harm you more than those you trust. No one can disappoint you more than those you love.

The friendship of Christ is a consolation. It is also a commitment. That commitment is expressed by Christ in the memorable verse: "No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends." Christ's death was an expression of friendship. The friendship of his disciples is to be marked by a commitment of similar depth.

The friendship of Christ is a gift of grace from God. "I no longer call you slaves. I call you friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you." Christ as your friend is a comfort and a commitment. "No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends."

A special thank you to Ms. Yvonne Braun

Ms. Yvonne has served the youth and families at the Basilica of St. Fidelis for thirty-five years. Of those thirty-five years, she has been a sophomore catechist for twenty-two years. This will be her final year as a catechist as she is retiring. We are forever grateful for her witness to Christ's abiding love and the virtues of faith, hope, and courage! Because of her courageous "yes" to teaching, loving, and ministering to our children and youth, we have been blessed by the light of Christ, shown through her deeds and words. Ms. Yvonne, you have touched the lives of many; students, parents, fellow catechists, friends, and parishioners alike! God Bless you and thank you!

In Christ, Jeanette Brungardt

Hearing Assists Available for Use During Mass in The Basilica

St. Fidelis has wireless hearing assists with adjustable volume that connect directly to the church's sound system. If you are interested in trying one, come by the Parish Office, pay a small deposit, and keep your unit until you don't need it. We will refund your deposit once the unit is returned.

If you already have personal Bluetooth hearing aids that are controllable from your cell phone, you can download an app on your cell and hear in church through your hearing aids. Just download the WaveCAST

Audio Receiver app by Williams Sound LLC from the Apple App Store on i-phones or from Google Play or Play

Store on android phones.

While in church when the sound system is turned on, click the WaveCAST icon and select the church's "HearingAid" wi-fi option to connect to the system. The password is also "hearingaid".

You will then control the volume, etc. from your individual hearing aid program already on your phone.

Prayer for Mothers

Mary, on this day when we honor all mothers, we turn to you. We thank the Lord whom you serve for the great gift of motherhood. Never has it been known that anyone who sought your intercession was left unaided by grace. Dear Mother, thank you for your "Yes" to the invitation of the angel which brought heaven to earth and changed human history. You opened yourself to God's word and the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us.

Dear mother, intercede for all of our mothers. Ask your Divine Son to give them the grace of surrendered love so that they could join with you in giving their own "Fiat." May they find daily strength to say yes to the call to the sacrificial love—the very heart of the vocation of motherhood. May their love and witness be a source of great inspiration for all of us called to follow your Son.

On this Mothers day, Mother of the Word Incarnate, pray for us who have recourse to you...

In the Name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit—Amen

Prayer for Fathers

St. Joseph, guardian of Jesus and chaste husband of Mary, you passed your life in loving fulfillment of duty.

You supported the holy family of Nazareth with the work of your hands. Kindly protect those who trustingly come to you.

You know their aspirations, their hardships, their hopes. They look to you because they know you will understand and protect them.

You too knew trial, labor and weariness. But amid the worries of material life your soul was full of deep peace and sang out in true joy through intimacy with God's Son entrusted to you and with Mary, his tender Mother.

Assure those you protect that they do not labor alone. Teach them to find Jesus near them and to watch over him faithfully as you have done.

Amen

Prayer For Marriages

Father, you are Love and Life.

Through your Son, Jesus Christ, born of woman, and through the Holy Spirit, fountain of divine charity, grant that every family on earth may become for each successive generation a true shrine of life and love.

Grant that your grace may guide the thoughts and actions of husbands and wives for the good of their families and of all the families in the world.

Grant that the young may find in the family solid support for their human dignity and for their growth in truth and love.

Grant that love, strengthened by the grace of the sacrament of marriage, may prove mightier than all the weakness and trials through which our families sometimes pass.

Through the intercession of the Holy Family of Nazareth, grant that the Church may fruitfully carry out her worldwide mission in the family and through the family.

Through Christ our Lord, who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life for ever and ever. Amen (Prayer from St. Pope John Paul II)

Prayer For Our Kids

O glorious St. Joseph, to you God committed the care of His only begotten Son amid the many dangers of this world. We come to you and ask you to take under your special protection the children God has given us. Through holy baptism they became children of God and members of His holy Church. We consecrate them to you today, that through this consecration they may become your foster children. Guard them, guide their steps in life, form their hearts after the hearts of Jesus and Mary. St. Joseph, who felt the tribulation and worry of a parent when the child Jesus was lost, protect our dear children for time and eternity. May you be their father and counsellor. Let them, like Jesus, grow in age as well as in wisdom and grace before God and men. Preserve them from the corruption of his world, and give us the grace one day to be united with them in Heaven forever.

Amen.
