Temples of the Holy Spirit

Pentecost celebrates the coming of the Holy Spirit to the Church and to each believer, making us temples of that same spirit. The spirit of God within us is a belief of every religion. Some do not believe in the personal God Christians call Father and some do not believe that Jesus of Nazareth is God's Son. But every faith honors the spirit of God in the world and in each person.

But what that spirit is and how she acts divides the religions of the world.

It has divided Christianity. In the eleventh century

Christianity split into Roman Catholic and Greek Orthodox in a dispute over the Holy Spirit. They agreed on who God the Father was and who Jesus was, but disagreed on how the Holy Spirit relates to the Father and the Son. This remains the basic theological division between us.

In the sixteenth century a dispute over the Holy Spirit divided Western Christianity into Catholicism and Protestantism. Catholics believe that the spirit speaks through Scripture, tradition and the teaching authority of the church. Protestants holds that the spirit speaks only through Scripture. Protestantism has subdivided many times regarding how the spirit speaks through Scripture: in each believer; in the community; or various unions of these.

Today a dispute over the spirit of God and the human spirit divides modern people. Secular humanism holds that the spirituality within us comes solely from our humanity. Christianity insists that our spiritual life comes from a divine spirit, a gift beyond human potential. We cannot save ourselves.

Christians believe that at the creation of the world God shared with us his spirit of life. Genesis says that at creation "the spirit hovered over the waters," and that God "breathed the spirit of life into Adam." That was the first creation.

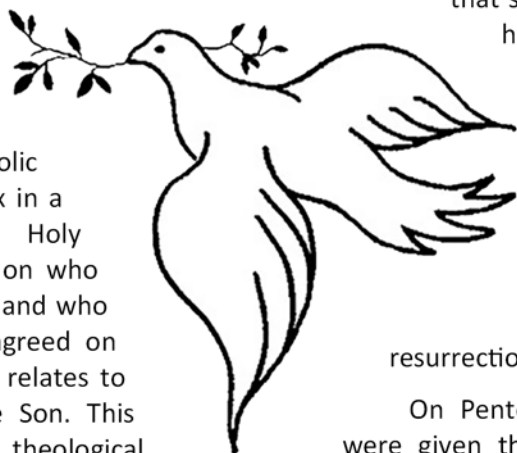

A new creation followed when Mary conceived Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit. When Christ died he gave up his spirit, but God returned that spirit to him, raising him up at the Resurrection.

Saint Paul wrote, "God constituted Jesus as Son of God in power through the Holy Spirit by his resurrection from the dead."

On Pentecost the Apostles were given the Holy Spirit in a unique manner which gave birth to the church. The same spirit is given to the baptized who become temples of the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of God dwelling among and within us. "Come Holy Spirit, and kindle in our hearts the fire of your love."

TAPS ACROSS AMERICA

The "Taps across America" program was designed to encourage Americans to pause for a duration of one minute at 3:00 p.m. local time to remember those who died in military service to the United States. The moment was first proclaimed in May 2000 and was put into law by the US Congress in December of that year. This will be the second year for this event to be observed in Victoria.

At 3:00 p.m. thousands of participants will be spread out across our nation playing the 24 notes of our most solemn bugle call. Our Victoria bugler has been registered on the national website along with the hundreds of others who choose to participate.

NIGHT OF HEALING FAITH

Are any among you sick? They should call for the elders of the church and have them pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord. The prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise them up; and anyone who has committed sins will be forgiven. Therefore confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The prayer of the righteous is powerful and effective. -James 5:14-16
