PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord’s Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

Labor Day Statement of the American Bishops

“The Church often looks at the well-being of society through the lens of the well-being of the family. As Pope Francis said, ‘We cannot call any society healthy when it does not leave real room for family life, protecting families and ensuring their basic needs.’

“This Labor Day, let us reflect on how we can build a more just economy by promoting the welfare of working families through both charitable works and through advocacy for improved policies such as expanding the Child Tax Credit and passing the Pregnant Workers Fairness Act. Advancing these two policies would have a profound impact on family stability, especially for families who are financially vulnerable.

“Even before current economic uncertainties, women earned less than their male counterparts, when doing the same work with the same qualifications. They filled the majority of direct care jobs, experiencing increased risk of injury, high stress, and exposure to illness while earning low wages. They were the majority of caretakers for their loved ones, yet many lacked adequate family and medical leave policies. These and other economic challenges continue to affect working families and children.

“Therefore, we support federal paid leave policy, just wages, and the right to organize. We have long called for a system in which the whole of society enjoys fundamental human needs including nutrition, affordable housing, education, and health care.

These common goods cannot be achieved through individual efforts alone, but require the collaboration and cooperation of everyone, and the exclusion of no one.

“Just as significant as federal policy, there is much work that can be done locally to advance the dignity of work. There are always opportunities to volunteer to help struggling families, such as with Catholic Charities. The Catholic Campaign for Human Development supports organizations that work on low-wage workers’ rights and training, in an effort to eliminate labor trafficking and related workplace abuses such as wage theft.

“While wages are rising, much of the increases are lost to inflation, which affects low-income families the most and puts our economy in a precarious position. Let us pray that government leaders who deal with inflation may have non-partisan prudence in addressing this challenge.

“Let us continue to work to build a just society for all that we might improve the lives of workers and their families. As St. Paul encouraged us, ‘Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, since you know that you will receive an inheritance from the Lord as a reward. It is the Lord you are serving.’” (Col. 3:23)

A LITTLE CHUCKLE

Celibacy

What is Celibacy? Celibacy can be a choice in life, or a condition imposed by circumstances.

While attending a Marriage Weekend, Frank and his wife Ann listened to the instructor declare, "It is essential that husbands and wives know the things that are important to each other."

He then addressed the men. Can you name and describe your wife's favorite flower?"

Frank leaned over, touched Ann's arm gently, and whispered, "Gold Medal-All-Purpose, isn't it?"

And thus began Frank's life of celibacy.

New Parishioners

If you would like to join one of the Tri-Parishes— St. Fidelis, St. Ann, or St. Boniface— Parishioner Forms are available at the Parish Office, 601 10th Street, or on the Home Page of our website: www.StFidelisChurch.com.

Homebound Services

St. Fidelis offers homebound Eucharistic ministry to all three parishes every Wednesday morning and every Sunday after the 10:00 a.m. Mass. If you would like to receive Communion in your home, contact the Parish Office.

Fr. Jim will also come to your home and offer the anointing of the sick or confessions.

Lost & Found

- A Sunday Missal in a nice zippered cover was found in the vestibule of the Basilica of St. Fidelis on Thursday, August 17.
- Long sleeved Victoria Knights shirt found in shopping bag on radiator by the bathrooms in the Basilica of St. Fidelis around August 1. Looks new.

To claim, please call the Parish Office at 785-735-2777.

When the bee has gathered the dew of heaven and the earth's sweetest nectar from the flowers, it turns it into honey, then hastens to its hive. In the same way, the priest, having taken from the altar the Son of God (who is as the dew from heaven, and true son of Mary, flower of our humanity), gives him to you as delicious food.
