PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord’s Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

Mark 10:35-45

The Indignant

In today's gospel the apparent villains are James and John. But they are not the only culprits. The brash request of James and John for honor and glory is evident. "Grant that we sit on your left and your right when you come into your glory." We are instinctively offended by such a blatant power grab. James and John are obvious villains.

But they are just the apparent culprits in this gospel which has a subtle message for all of us. The reaction of the other ten apostles is our lesson. They were just as proud and selfish as James and John but tried to camouflage it. They represent ordinary faithful but flawed Christians.

The gospel says that when the other apostles heard that James and John had asked for top honors, "They became indignant at James and John." They saw themselves as honorably protesting the pride of James and John, but they were in reality guilty of the same pride in a more subtle form. Christ did not miss their thinly veiled pride. It was not when James and John asked for honors but when the others became indignant that Christ admonished them about a leader's need to be of humble service.

The fault of James and John is obvious. The failure of the other ten is better disguised but no less offensive. The gospel expresses this by telling us that the ten became "indignant." Such indignation is evidence of thinly veiled jealousy, resentment, and pride.

When we become indignant at the failure of another it betrays our own weakness more than that of the other. It shows that we are judgmental, resentful, and jealous. Devout Christians, especially the clergy, are the most vulnerable to such righteous indignation. We are guilty of such indignation and resentment when we take a secret delight in the failure of others in the hope that their faults will make us look better.

This is not to minimize or dismiss serious moral wrongs which we should never condone, or worse imitate. It is only a caution against using the failures of others to create false virtue in myself. But how can I know the difference between the duty to protest injustice and the deception of pampering my ego? My conscience will tell me. If I listen.

James and John asked, "Lord grant that we sit on your left and your right when you come into your glory." The ten became indignant. And Jesus said to all of them, "Whoever wishes to be great among you must be your servant."

... and mirth

Judging a person doesn't define who they are; it defines who I am.

Dear, Lord,
we are so grateful that in a world that is constantly changing, you never change.
Your Word and promises are the same yesterday, today, and forever.
Though we don't know what tomorrow holds, we know you do.
What we don't understand, you do.
Where we don't see a way, you do.
Where we have questions, you know the answers.
It's so comforting to know that you hold us every day of our lives in your hands.
Thank you, Lord. In Jesus' name we pray.

The history book published for our 2011 Centennial has lots of information you could provide for the visitors. And personal experiences can be thrown in as well.

If you are interested in helping with these tours—which can be anywhere from 15 minutes to an hour—and are usually during weekday mornings and afternoons, please contact the Parish Office at 785-735-2777.

A LITTLE CHUCKLE

Don't Mess with a Man's Truck

A recently married man was in the garage working on his old truck.

His new wife came out and watched him for a minute and then said, "Now that we are married you should probably sell that old truck!"

Suddenly the man's face went pale and he looked as if he was going to be sick.

"Are you okay? What's the matter?" asked the wife.

The man said, "For a minute there you sounded like my ex-wife."

"Ex-wife!" the woman shouted. "You never told me that you were married before."

"I wasn't," he said.

October Is the Month of the Holy Rosary

The month of October is dedicated to the Most Holy Rosary. Everyone is invited to pray the Rosary during this time. Through the intercession of our Blessed Mother, let us come together in prayer.

Rosaries for each mystery of the rosary are available on the Salina Diocese podcast “From the Heart”, which can be found by visiting fromtheheartssalina.com (or go to SalinaDiocese.org —> Offices —> Communications —> From the Heart Podcast). Scroll down and you will see a section titled “Pray the Rosary with Bishop”.

Help Support Diocesan Publication Costs

The Communications Office of the Diocese of Salina seeks to evangelize the hearts of the faithful. We speak to the hearts of steadfast Catholics, the hearts of the lukewarm, and the hearts of the ignorant through our print and online resources. And by our words, our hope is that we are inspiring life-changing Catholic conversations in every corner of our diocese.

Currently, nearly 16,000 Catholic households receive a monthly newspaper and a quarterly Faith magazine at no cost. Additionally, we offer online resources, such as media and podcasts, at no cost.

Would you consider making a gift to the Catholic Conversations Drive (formerly called the Publication Drive)? Your gift would help offset the cost to produce, print, and mail our publications, as well as support our online communication efforts.

Visit salinadiocese.org to make your gift today! Or use the envelope inserts found in the October 22 issue of The Register or the November issue of Faith.
