PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord’s Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

The Sacrament of Reconciliation. Why go?

Conversion is worth some human interaction. Jesus shows this to us in the Gospels.

When we tell someone something, we truly admit it to ourselves as well. An act of humility is good for us—we confess sins and express contrition. This Sacrament provides us with a particular moment of starting again. We hear words of Forgiveness in the Absolution spoken aloud to us. We receive some advice and encouragement. We are not alone.

Beforehand: Examination of Conscience via prayer, reflection, Bible, written guide. Recall all serious sins, how many times; smaller sins, too, and how often. Know your sins and the priest will guide you through the rest.

1. Reception of “penitent”. Enter the confessional and kneel anonymously, or sit to face the priest. Both make the Sign of the Cross. The priest might invite you to trust in God, etc.

2. Reading the Word of God. This is not often included in individual confession, though Scripture is used during a Communal Penance Service. If Scripture is read, listen attentively.

3. Confession of sins and acceptance of satisfaction--Penance. Say how long since your last confession: weeks, months, years, “during last Lent”, etc.

This helps the priest understand the penitent's situation and will respond accordingly.

Say aloud all serious sins, how many times; smaller sins, too, how often. Sins must be spoken aloud to be forgiven. Be open and straight-forward, even if embarrassed. The priest is to be compassionate. The priest never reveals what is heard in Confession--not to you or to anyone. Listen to the advice from the priest. Make sure you understand the penance that the priest gives. Ask questions for clarification. The penance should be relatively simple. It should be able to be accomplished that same day.

4. Prayer of the penitent: Say an “Act of Contrition”---memorized prayer or spontaneous.

5. Absolution. The priest extends his hands and prays the Absolution prayer. Make the sign of the Cross over yourself and respond AMEN.

6. Proclamation of Praise of God and Dismissal. People might be unfamiliar with this.

Dismissal = Priest: “Go in Peace”.

Penitent: “Thanks be to God”

Afterwards: Be sure to do the penance as soon as possible.

Catholics should go to Confession at least once a year. No one is so perfect as to go a whole year without some sin. May we truly repent of our sins, and eagerly come to this Sacrament of Christ's mercy.

A message from Fr. Curtis Carlson, OFM Cap.

Many of you noticed the piece of paper lodged in the bottom of the balcony of the Basilica last weekend. I joked with a parishioner that it might be a message from God. When I knocked the page down and read it, I found some words and musical notes. It obviously originated from the choir. And I believe it was, indeed, a message from God to us regarding our Eucharistic Adoration. The words are: "Stay with me, remain with me, watch and pray---watch and pray."

THIS WEEKEND

There is a second collection at ALL Tri-Parish masses this weekend (June 7 and 8) to provide relief for the tornado victims of Grinnell, KS. If you can, please consider donating to this local diocese cause.

The Salina Diocese will utilize the Catholic Charities Disaster Relief Fund. The fund is locally held with the Catholic Charities of Northern Kansas and only available for use in the Diocese of Salina. These funds go straight to helping these families whether that's through supplies, housing support, or other critical needs.

Each parish will receive these envelopes for parishioners to use for donations. They are asking for YOUR help to complete a Catholic Mission Hospital in the Lokoja Diocese of Nigeria. Please read the flyer below for other details.

A DREAM WITHIN REACH

Help Us Complete a Catholic Mission Hospital in Lokoja Diocese, Nigeria

Every day, in Nigeria, a mother weeps for a child lost. Every day, a family watches a loved one suffer without care; Mothers dying during childbirth, infants slipping away before they've truly begun to live. But behind these numbers are real people, real families, real stories of pain and desperation. Time is not a luxury they have.

The International Missionary Foundation (IMF) is answering a desperate cry for help. We are building a 40 bed Children's Hospital and Medical Centre in Lokoja Diocese, a beacon of hope in a sea of overwhelming need.

This hospital will be a sanctuary for pregnant mothers, children, and the elderly, those who are most vulnerable. But it's more than a building; it's a promise. A promise of health, dignity, and a chance at life.

The reality is stark: 97% of the poor in Nigeria have no health insurance. Mothers die in childbirth; infants vanish too soon. We've made progress, completing the first phase, and the front section is nearing completion for 2025 opening. But we're at a critical juncture.

We need $25,500 to finish this life-saving mission – $10,500 for the essential interior, $15,000 for the perimeter fence and completion of the exterior work.

Every dollar you give will have a direct, tangible impact. It will mean a mother can hold her child, a child can receive life-saving treatment, an elderly person can find comfort. Imagine the joy of seeing the first patient walk through the doors of this hospital, knowing that you played a vital role in making it possible. Imagine the relief of a mother holding her healthy newborn, knowing that your generosity helped bring that child safely into the world.

Let Our Lord's words in Matthew 24:40 resonate: 'Amen I say to you, whenever you did this for one of these, the least of my brothers, you did it for me.'

Your generosity, your sacrifice, will bring life where there is despair. Please consider donating today to support our efforts and be a part of Miracle.
