PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord's Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

WELCOME FATHER CURTIS CARLSON!

In 1959, I was born in Emporia, Kansas, and I grew up in Burlington, Kansas. I was ordained to the priesthood on May 29, 1995. In Victoria, I was a high school senior 1976-77 and a Capuchin novice 1988-89. In Hays, I was Parochial Vicar at Saint Joseph Church 1995-97 and Director of the Comeau Catholic Campus Center 1997-2000. I was pastor at Saint Mary Church in Ellis 2008-10. Most recently I have been living at Saint Fidelis Friary since 2021 and have been pastor at Our Lady Help of Christians (Antonino) and Saint Anthony (Schoenchen) and helped at Via Christi Village (Hays). —Fr. Curtis

A Lenten Transfiguration

The gospel for the first Sunday of Lent is always the story of Satan tempting Christ, which is an obvious Lenten topic. The gospel for the second Sunday of Lent is always the Transfiguration, and that Lenten message is not apparent.

Today we read the account of the Transfiguration from the gospel of Luke which includes details not in the other gospels. Those details help to clarify the Lenten message of the Transfiguration.

The gospels of Matthew and Mark say that Jesus led Peter, James, and John up a high mountain and was transfigured before them. Luke says, "Jesus took them up the mountain to pray, and while he was praying he was changed in appearance." Luke sees the Transfiguration as a union with God achieved through prayer.

Matthew and Mark say that Jesus was transfigured. Luke says, "his face changed in appearance and his clothes became dazzling white." For Luke this outward appearance reflects the inner union with God achieved in prayer.

Only Luke mentions that the disciples Peter, James, and John were asleep. These same three also slept during the agony in the garden of Gethsemane. With these sleeping apostles Luke ties the glory of the Transfiguration with the passion of Christ. The garden of Gethsemane is related to the mount of the Transfiguration as the agony of the passion is to the glory of the Resurrection. As Lent is to Easter.

The most significant detail in Luke's account is that he alone tells us what Jesus, Moses and Elijah were talking about: "The exodus that he was going to accomplish in Jerusalem." This exodus of Christ recalls the exodus of the Hebrews from the slavery of Egypt, through the travails of the desert, into the promised land. As that exodus from Egypt freed the Hebrews from slavery, the exodus of Christ, his death and resurrection, freed us from the bonds of sin.

The Preface of today's Mass also refers to this dimension of the Transfiguration. "Christ revealed Himself in glory to His disciples to prepare them for His approaching death. He wanted to teach them through the law and the Prophets that the promised Christ had first to suffer and so come to the glory of His resurrection."

Luke's account of the Transfiguration emphasizes the core theme of Lent: the passion, death, and resurrection of Christ. As we struggle with our weaknesses to emerge as better Christians, this message of today's gospel, connecting the passion of Christ with his resurrection, offers hope that our Lenten observance will lead to a share in his eternal glory.

Mardi Gras Celebration

Mardi Gras guests enjoy the evening potluck.

Stephanie Broyles makes delicious pancakes to share with all the guests.

It was to be an evening of good food, games, and laughter to celebrate Mardi Gras, but Mother Nature had other ideas. Numerous parish organizations were invited, but eleven brave souls ventured out into the windy, freezing, wet weather to enjoy the evening. The food was delicious, and pancake races were on the agenda. However, when the lights flickered, threatening a power outage, the evening abruptly ended as everyone decided home was the safest place to be.
