PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord's Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

FRIARS' MIND

Fr. Curtis Carlson, OFM Cap. & Fr. Vince Mary, OFM Cap.

This past week I was very grateful for the nice cool weather we had in the early mornings. It was a nice opportunity to go for a walk or go for a run, or possibly a little bike ride. On those occasions I was also very grateful to see the sunrise in all of its beauty — the colors of the sky, the tint that the sun paints the heavens with. Even when the sun goes down as the sunset puts our little quiet town to sleep — I've been very grateful for those.

This last week we celebrated the transfiguration of the Lord and this is the moment when Jesus finally reveals his Kingship to the disciples. He reveals His presence. His Glory. His majesty. And not only that but God the Father even affirms Jesus' Sonship. The gospel tells us that Jesus's face shone bright like the sun, in radiance and splendor. Imagine that. The disciples were terrified yet they wanted to stay. Stay, because they recognized Jesus was truly sent by God.

On my mind this week is that beautiful invitation. The invitation to see God face to face, shining like the sun! There's a reason why every Monstrance that's used to display the Blessed Sacrament in Adoration looks like a Sun. Because in it, we see the face of the Son.

My prayer this week is that even in the midst of our Herzgogfest, our busyness, our work, our grieving, even in the midst of our lives. I pray that each of us can see and recognize the face of Jesus. The face of Jesus shining brightly in our lives, in the Eucharist and in the lives of those around us. Amen.
